The Interesting Options in Sighting Mallorca by Mathews Robb

Article published on July 16th 2012 | Destinations

Mallorca is one of the bigger islands on Balearic Islands; it is very popular with tourists especially during the summer. It is an idyllic island which offers consistent warmth from the weather and locals. There are beautiful beaches which pose as a romantic or delightful holiday for any couple, individual or family.

Cycling Excursion

There are many offerings in Mallorca; one can cycle around this lovely island from the local port to El Arenal. It is an idyllic journey of 16 kilometers where one can view the lovely landscapes and enjoy the fresh air and warm sunshine as one cycles along the coast.

Cycling tourists would get to view various famous beaches along the cycle route before arriving at El Arenal. One can perform this cycling excursion personally or join a tour group specializing in a cycle excursion. This option allows the tourists a different view of Mallorca at their own pace to enjoy their holiday in a more adventurous and exciting approach.

One can stop at any of the beaches along the way such as Santa Ponca and Illetas to enjoy the fine soft sand and crystal clear warm waters. There is no rush and no agenda except to enjoy the best of Mallorca in a different style.

Picturesque Sights

One of the great attractions of Mallorca is the majestic mountain views of Sierra de Tramuntana. This impressive mountain rangeÂ can be accessed from Palma at the north east; it is impossible to miss this awesome sight as it is parallel to the Mediterranean Sea. Along the way, there is the picturesque village of Calvia with a delightful Mediterranean landscape. There, one would find some historical offerings such as the ancient Iglesia Parroquial church as well as a 18thÂ century castle.

There are also many quaint fishing villages along the way which would delight honeymooners or couples spending their vacation on Mallorca. These places offer some outstanding landscapes on the island.Â

Tourists would enjoy Camp de MarÂ which is one of the islandâ€™s most beautiful bay. It has a small island right in the middle which makes it a unique sight. Tourists can check out the local port of Puerto de Andraitx which is a natural port with pine woods all around it, making it a most surreal environment for relaxation. One can also explore the beautiful Isla Dragonera easily with the easy availability of tour operators, bicycles and local assistance.
