The Sight Seen Charm of North India Tours

by Nikita Martin

Article published on March 13th 2012 | Destinations

Unity in multiplicity is one of the well-known speech marks that Indian people narrate them to and this has evolved from the miscellaneous cultural and physical background of India. North India itself provides a wide variety of wildlife, tourist spots and hence has a lot to offer to the tourists. There are historical monuments, snow-covered mountains and fabulous wildlife that is pull travellers a lot. For a proper break to all the places by making efficient use of the available time, travelers must go with the North India Tour Packages.

The North India tours are best done with the help of these packages. The north India holidays, which include many well-known fairs and festivals, are also pleasurable. Particular North India Tour Packages are planned during many festivals like Holi and also during fairs similar to the Pushkar Fair held in Rajasthan. Also the Surajkund mela near Delhi happens for few days and includes some of India's best local dance presentation, handicrafts and cuisines. Other well-liked North India holidays, which attract tourists, are Janmashtami, the birth of Lord Krishna, and Lohri.

North India Tours become more attractive and daring due to the presence of large mountains. This has amplified the wildlife population in the region and has also resulted into setting up of many wildlife sanctuaries and national parks. Corbett National Park and Ranthambore National Parks for tigers, Bharatpur National Park is for famous for colorful and Nanda Devi National Parks for snow leopards are some of such places of interest. Some of these wildlife sanctuaries have been incorporated in many North India Tours and hence make the trip a complete pleasure one for all.

The range of hill stations in North India is also quite well-known. North India tours in places like Shimla are very famous for their beautiful lakes, valleys, snow-capped peaks and dropdown waterfalls. Nainital in Uttarakhnad, Ladakh, Srinagar and Mount Abu are just some of the new places with highly attracting natural picturesque beauty. The North India Tour Packages are a inclusive package and hence also include the well-known holy places without which the north India holidays are not worth spending.

The pilgrimages are very well-known among the tourists and some of them like Vaishno Devi in Jammu and Kashmir see tourists coming there every year. Numerous places like Mathura and Vrindavan are considered holy by the Hindu people and hence attract many people. Carnival of Urs in North India attracts thousands of visitors as well. The major purpose of any holiday tour is to seek comfort and enjoyment and hence a North India Tour must definitely include a travel in one of the most luxurious trains, Palace- on- wheels.

It not only offers luxurious and excellent service but also a delicate food and a wonderful natural picturesque enjoyment from the train itself. The train starts from Delhi and after traveling through different gorgeous locations across Rajasthan and Agra returns back to Delhi. North India is this very rich in natural prettiness and has something to offer to travellers of all age and to people from all over the world and they can chose any of the North India Packages and can be assured of a grand comfort holiday.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/the-sight-seen-charm-of-north-india-tours.htm - Article Side

Nikita Martin - About Author:
To get more information about a North India Tours, a Taj Mahal Tours and a India Tour Operators,
Visit- northernindiatours.com

Article Keywords:
North India Tours, Taj Mahal Tours, India Tour Operators

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!