The Splendid Camp Wild at Dhauj Faridabad by Sara Hasan

Article published on January 27th 2012 | Destinations

The Camp Wild is a place at a distance of 55 kilometers from Gurgaon, located in the city of Faridabad in the state Haryana. The Camp Wild is located in the neighborhood of Mangar Village at Dhauj. The Camp Wild has earned great popularity due to its location near Delhi and Gurgaon. The place is easily accessible and one should to take out time from his busy life so be a part of Camp Wild. The Camp Wild offers beautiful scenic landscapes and it is surrounded by the Aravali Hills on all sides which makes the place look stunning.

The dazzling gorge at Dhauj has a mind blowing and thrilling blend of country side farm life and a wild dÃ©cor which is perfect for undertaking a exciting activity. One can imagine how awe inspiring it would be to stay in a wild ambience. Moreover one can see a number of species of Birds near Camp Wild at Dhauj. It is reported that 67 different species of birds are seen near the area. The best time to go for bird watching is early in the morning, if one is interested to watch a number of birds. Camp wild is an ideal and a greeting place for the ones who wants to stay away from the hustle and bustle life of the city. The best time to visit the place is on weekends. The Camp Wild gives you a chance to get away from the everyday routine and discover the real fun and enjoyment in the villages of India. One can indulge in activities like rock climbing on the solid granite rock and other associated sports.

The experience is breathtaking and you will explore unlimited scenic beauty and charm. The Camp Wild has accommodation facilities as well. It has fifteen lodgesâ€™ rooms where one can stay on visit to Dhauj. All the rooms are well furnished and have a covered porch. One can take the pleasure to view the majestic Aravali hills from the rooms as all rooms are designed in such a way that they feature the overwhelming view of the Aravali hills. In addition all rooms have modern washrooms and other necessary amenities.

On reaching the Camp wild you will be served a welcome drink in the resort which is inclusive in the package. Other benefits such as Buffet lunch, complimentary leisure activities in the resort, evening snacks and two group building games as well. There are a huge number of activities one can take part in such as Burma Bridge, Tarzen Swing, Commando Net, Balance Walk, Barrol Crossing, Machan Climb and Monkey Crawl these activities are available at the rate of Rs. 150/- per person whereas activities such as Natural rock climbing, Rappelling, the art of crossing a River and artificial Rock wall are available at the rate of Rs 200/- per person.

The best is to book the resort beforehand to avoid unnecessary trouble. In short one should plan to visit the place to have experience of a lifetime.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/the-splendid-camp-wild-at-dhauj-faridabad.htm - Article Side

Sara Hasan - About Author:
Sara has deep interest in writing informative articles on Adventure Travel in India and a Camping Near Delhi and get more information about a Camp Wild Delhi and a Camp Wild At Faridabad.
Explore: weekend-getaways.india-tours.net

Article Keywords:
Camping Near Delhi, Camp Wild Delhi, Camp Wild At Faridabad, Camp Wild at Dhauj

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!