Article Side

Things to do in Thailand by Aanchal Gupta

Article published on February 6th 2012 | Destinations

Thailand is a very traditional country with lot of cultural values attached to it. The official language of Thailand is Thai although you will find people speaking Malay and Chinese. In major cities like Bangkok, English is well spoken and understood. Buddhism is the main religion here. The people of Thailand believe in strong family values, as you will find out when you visit different places in packages Thailand.

The delicious Thai cuisine offers another glimpse into the wonderful Thai culture. The various packages Thailand will provide you with a host of international cuisines but the Thai cuisine is something that you must sample. Thai cuisine is known for its spices. Any Thai dish is usually served with rice. There is a lot of importance of gravies and sauces in Thai cuisine.

You can start of your Bangkok tour package by visiting the Democracy Monument, built in 1932 to celebrate Thailand's first constitution. The Grand Palace in Bangkok is where you should go next. Itâ€™s built in a very ethnic style with lots of importance given to the Thai culture. It has now been converted into a museum. To enjoy the cultural heritage of the country, this place is a must in your package for Bangkok.

Bangkok has well developed roadway as well as rail network. Traveling around the city is easy as you can avail a cab. Bangkok is served by Suvarnabhumi Airport which is a word class airport and is connected to cities worldwide. For all shopping enthusiasts, this airport will make your package for Bangkok special as it offers various duty free stores. If you love the ambiance of Venice but cannot afford a visit, there is good news for you people as Thailand has its own Venice look alike, Bangkok Khlongs are canals which are called as â€œVenice of the eastâ€•. You can catch any water taxi and relax around this beautiful waterway.

Hotels in Bangkok vary widely and range from economical inns to five star hotels. Bangkok tour package are enjoyable whatever be the kind of accommodation you choose because the people here are extremely hospitable and friendly. Bangkok is a great place for shopping as it has a host of shopping malls that cater to international brands as well as local designer wear. The Siam Paragon Shopping Centre, Central World Bangkok, Terminal 21 Bangkok and Amarin Plaza Bangkok are some places where you can have fun. The advantage here is that you get genuine goods at affordable prices. If shopping is what you want, then Bangkok tour package will never disappoint you. Bangkok is a place where you will find whatever you need; itâ€™s a megacity with different people from various ethnic backgrounds. To truly enjoy your trip, you need to select the best suitable package for Bangkok. Thailand is a very diverse country with different places. There are various packages Thailand that you can choose depending on your need.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/things-to-do-in-thailand.htm - Article Side

Aanchal Gupta - About Author:
Travel in Thailand is filled with things to do. So, when you plan a a Bangkok tour package, make sure that you ask your travel operator to add in visits to some of the best places. a Package for Bangkok can be worth it when you feel all thrilled and pumped up from the adventure activities. a Packages Thailandcan be planned along with a big family so that you all can enjoy it well.

Article Keywords:
Bangkok tour package, Package for Bangkok, Packages Thailand

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!