Timeless London by Carolyn Ann Clayton

Article published on January 5th 2012 | Destinations

Every year from across the world a huge number of tourists visit Londo Its popularity is incomparable to any other city in the world. Why is it that people from across the world get attracted to London year on year? The answer can be innumerable. From what looks like London owes its popularity to its gorgeous natural beauty, its happening nightlife, its galleries, museums and its architectural geniuses. All in all London is a complete destination where a tourist can enjoy a varied range of activities. A rare combination when compared to many other cities in the world.

London is a city of great architectural wonders. Topping the list is the majestic London bridge, it is a must see and a walk on this bridge is guaranteed to give you a panoramic view of the city and the Thames River. Second, on the list is the one of its kind the Buckingham Palace. A visit to it is must to experience Londonâ€™s royal history. The last on the must see list is the London tower that can take any one back in time. The view of the city from the top of the London eye is perhaps the most mesmerizing experiences.

If you are a nature lover and have a feel for the wild then the ZSL London zoo is a place you should not miss. Here the tourists get the opportunity to see and feel different animals in their natural surroundings. Making it more than just a zoo, it is a sanctuary. To feel the natural beauties of London you can visit a lot of places. For a tourist time is the biggest concern so try to ensure that you at least visit the Richmond Park, Little Venice, etc.

Londonâ€™s unforgettable experience is absolutely incomplete without a boat cruise in River Thames. Sea life is a very popular place in London. It is a huge aquarium where the tourists can view tortoise, fishes, sharks, various species of fish in their natural habitat. The tourists can also feed the fish. The kids simply love this place. The city also has a number of theme parks where the kids can enjoy water and thrill rides.

London is the perfect place to shop as it has to offer everything from the best brands to the cheap bargain deals. The most popular and stylish departmental stores are Debenhams, Fortnum & Mason and Fenwick. For small budget the Kensington High Street and the Oxford Street are must. The culture and art enthusiasts can visit various museums and galleries in London. To name few are The British museum and The Tate Gallery.

All in all London is a complete city that has a huge range of interesting activities lined up for people of all age and background. The city is timeless and has charm that makes it so different from many other cities in the world. Itâ€™s a place where old and new blends. I hope this article will help you plan a better holiday. Have a great stay at London!

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/timeless-london.htm - Article Side

Carolyn Ann Clayton - About Author:

For somewhere cheap to stay in London try one of the a Kensington Hotels like Kensington West, which is one of the great a Budget London Hotels.

Article Keywords:
timeless london,tourists visit london,visit london,visit various museum

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!