Top 5 Hotels in San Juan Puerto Rico by Roger Nash

Article published on February 2nd 2012 | Destinations

Sometimes all you want to do on a trip is relax in your hotel and make use of the amenities. Of course you will step out to see the sights around, but at the end of the day you may want to come back to some luxury rather than something functional. If such is the case, then here are 5 hotels located in San Juan, Puerto Rico that you will really appreciate.

The San Juan Water and Beach Club Hotel is one of them. This is a boutique hotel, a trend that is fast picking up in this part of the world. The hotel is the epitome of the Latin culture and exudes an alluring atmosphere. It is quite centrally located and is just five minutes away from the airport in luxurious Isla Verde. With the help of theatrical lighting, the outdoor ambiance is brought into the inside. The hotel is perfect for a romantic getaway.

You can also check out Hotel El Convento, which is a member of the Historic Hotels of America. This hotel was originally a Carmelite convent and the structure is around 350 years old. It has been renovated several times over the years; however, its original essence and beauty remain intact. This is also a boutique hotel that celebrates the Old World charm of the region.

If relaxation is what you are looking for, the Horned Dorset Primavera Hotel is your answer. It is spread over an 8-acre campus and gives you a fantastic view of the ocean. For the ultimate luxurious experience you can ask for the hillside villas, which come with some brilliant views. Almost all the suites here come with private pools to give you the ultimate in holidaying fun. The rooms are done up in exotic ways and materials.

El Conquistador Resort and Golden Door Spa sits pretty on the edge of a 300 ft. cliff and can be treated as a complete retreat from the humdrum of the regular world. This resort is sectioned off into 5 different villages, offering you a range of experiences and spa treatments. The most luxurious is that of Las Casitas Village, where a butler is at your service round-the-clock.

Conrad San Juan Condado Plaza exudes a very colonial atmosphere with modern accents. It is the only property where you will find views of both the Atlantic Ocean as well as the Condado Lagoon. Thanks to this the views and the lighting you experience change all the time.
