Article published on February 8th 2012 | Destinations

A tour to Himachal will give you an experience for life. It offers great discounts on Manali tours, Shimla tours and others. Next holidays plan up a Himachal tour and explore what this beautiful hill station lying in the lap of the Himalayas has in store for you. The Himachal package tours are extremely well planned to give the travelers full satisfaction during their Manali tours. Such package tours include travel expenses, accommodation, food and sight-seeing. If you want to personalize your schedule then you will have to bear the costs. Manali is an exotic town with snow-capped mountains all around, the River Beas meandering through the town and the rows of pine and deodar trees make the trip extremely enchanting. Anyone coming up from the congested cities will simply gape at the awesome scenery and inhale the refreshing air like anything. The fruit orchards and the small fields are so beautiful.

The main tourists' spots that are frequently visited are the antique temples of Hidimba Devi and Manu. Trekking is a common sport here and visitors enjoy trekking to the Spiti, Kangra, Lahaul and Zaskar mountains. You will get guides to help you in your Manali tours. Manali is very popular among tourists as you can visit this home of natural beauty all round the year. They will stop by in Shimla and also Dharamshala to get a glimpse of the capital city of Himachal Pradesh. Shopping in the malls or a stroll to the attractive Ridge to rejuvenate your selves is a must for all visitors.

The other places that you must never miss in your tour to Himachal are the extravagant Solang Valley, the Rohtang pass, Kothi Gorge and other tourists' spots. The first time you visit this state, make sure to come with a group by booking your holidays with travel agents. They make wonderful arrangements and you will not have to worry about anything. They will arrange for your stay in the best hotels at Manali or elsewhere you go and the food served in these resorts are of the finest types. Children are taken care of properly and their food can be ordered separately if so desired. Conducted tours are arranged for sight-seeing and other adventure sports. It will surely be a loss if you do not go trekking or paragliding and ice-skating when you go to Manali or Shimla. There are interesting things for shopping in the malls and the local shops for carrying back home.
