Tours from Al Khobar by Lek Boonlert

Article published on November 30th 2011 | Destinations

The main attractions of Al Khobar are the beach and the amazing shopping malls, but tourists who wish to see a little more of Saudi Arabia whilst staying in an Al Khobar hotel will want to book a tour to suit their interests.

Desert excursions are obviously very popular, and your hotel reception should be able to provide you with information on how to book.

On excursions into the desert, people usually by jeep with experienced desert guides and often includes a meal in a Bedouin village. The Bedouins are by nature very hospitable, and the chance to see how these ancient desert dwellers have existed for thousands of years is not to be missed. Evening trips, with supper under the stars, are a great desert experience, as are desert barbecues.

As taking photographs in Saudi Arabia can be a sensitive issue, due to the Arabs heightened sense of privacy, keen photographers can book day expeditions with professional photographers; they will have located the best photographic locations to enable visitors to take home some really stunning shots.

Some of the worldâ€™s best deep sea fishing can be found in the Persian Gulf and fishing boats with experienced crew who know the best fishing grounds can be hired - a great day out if you can make up a small group with friends to share the cost.

The whole family can enjoy hour or two of fun by hiring camels for a short excursion. This is a great photo opportunity, and will provide plenty of laughs.
