Tours in Bournemouth City Centre by Lek Boonlert

Article published on December 6th 2011 | Destinations

Bournemouth is one of the most delightful areas in the UK. It is perfectly located for many wonderful sights. It is possible that those staying in a Bournemouth city centre hotel, can make arrangements for excursions to collect them and drop them back off at the hotel door. Those excursion companies that do not offer a door-to-door service will have set pick up and drop off points that are usually conveniently located for public transport links.

Tours include a full day visit to the Jurassic Coast and the Isle of Purbeck. The only natural UNESCO world heritage site in the country, the Jurassic coast offers stunning scenery and the perfect photo opportunity. Stops along the way include Corfe Castle and Lulworth Cove. A half day tour is also available to the Jurassic coast and the morning can be spent at the beautiful Lulworth Cove or paddling in the clear waters.

A full day tour to Stonehenge taking in the New Forest can also be booked, which includes a trip to Salisbury Cathedral. This is a great trip for those who love a sense of history and mystery. The New Forest has many fabulous little villages to explore and is very relaxing. A half-day afternoon tour to Stonehenge is also available which takes in the monument and the Cathedral at Salisbury.

Full day trips can also be taken to the Isle of Wight, London, Bath and Oxford. All of which are remarkable places to visit, each with something different and unique to offer.
