Travel and Tour the Philippines in Summer!

by Travelling Feet

Article published on April 18th 2012 | Destinations

The summer season from March to May proves to be the best time to travel and tour the Philippines. With its white-sandy beach shores and crystal blue seas, no wonder tourists from all over the world are attracted to the many secluded island formations of this land. Known to be a prime travel destination in South East Asia, this sun-kissed archipelago is home to several bodies of water and eco-country scenery that the summer season can make use of as its charm.

Travel to the Philippines and see what awaits you with its endless array of seaside vacation spots. A brief tour to the best destinations in the Philippines during summer is enough to captivate your craving for some sizzling holiday.

Bohol province is a great destination that offers diverse spectacular natural attractions. Bohol province was endowed with outstanding white sand beaches and azure clear waters. Itâ€™s proximity to Cebu and Dumaguete makes it very accessible to visit and be included in holiday vacations.

Zambales is a place of unassuming beauty. It is home to the picturesque Mt. Pinatubo, great tasting mangoes, vibrant Subic Bay, 173 kilometers of beaches, dive spots, surfing areas, and other wonderful treasures awaiting to be explored.

Boracay. Who can miss this magical place? Boracay is the popular destination for beach lovers and water sports enthusiasts. Not only is the sand pure and white, nor the sea crystal blue-green â€“ the beach party at night is like no other!

Palawan. This precious place in the western part of the archipelago, consists of more than 1,700 islands making it the largest province in the Philippines. Most excitingly, Palawan brings in an experience of exclusive escapes to private islands while enjoying a personalized and an all-inclusive holiday.

Some tips when to Travel and Tour the Philippines in summer:

Don a hat, scarf, and sunglasses to protect yourself from the sunny rays of the sun.

Always bring your sunblock to keep your skin pain-free after much tanning

Hydrate yourself regularly with water that comes handy during travel

Bring a book with you in the beach as our beaches can truly provide a serene place to unwind and reflect

Tag a friend along to keep the adventure moving! It's always fun to share a summer with someone.

Nothing beats this place for one-of-a-kind summer adventure. The Philippines is poised to be a great country to explore when one is looking for the best kind of sea adventure and beach partying. There is no such place as boring in this land whose main composition is the vast sea.

For custom packages to travel and tour the Philippines for the summer, contact maogma.com â€“ your specialised luxury travel agent in the Philippines.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/travel-and-tour-the-philippines-in-summer.htm - Article Side

Travelling Feet - About Author:
About the Author
Maogma is a team of luxury travel specialists who genuinely care in providing travelers like you the same wonderful holiday experiences our friends have been privileged to indulge from our personal attention and painstaking effort.
a Travel and Tour Philippines.

Article Keywords:
Travel and tour Philippines, Travel to Philippines, Philippine Vacation Spots, Travel Tour Packages Philippines, Asia Travel Philippines, Best time to Travel to Philippines, Philippines Travel Information

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!