Vizag or Vishakhapatnam lies in Andhra Pradesh and is one of the busiest trade centres of the state while Chennai is the capital city of Tamil Nadu. It is obvious that people have to travel between Vishakhapatnam Chennai for education, business, trade etc. that is the reason why both the cities are well connected through airways, railways and roadways.

The distance between Vishakhapatnam Chennai is 809 kilometres and if you are travelling by road, it takes 12 hours to cover the journey. You can take a cab or drive on your own but the most convenient and cheapest option is that of travelling by a bus. A normal AC bus or a Volvo takes 12 hours to cover this distance. The journey is comfortable thanks to the wonderful roads of National Highway 5 and National Highway 16 that connect Vishakhapatnam Chennai.

There is no dearth of buses connecting Vishakhapatnam Chennai. One can take a Volvo, Ac buses, Deluxe Non AC or the state transport buses. The charges for each are different. However, there is not much difference between the prices of AC buses and Volvo and just a couple of hundred bucks which is the reason why people prefer travelling by Volvo only as it is much more comfortable. There is no doubt more leg space in Volvo buses, the seats are wide, luggage can be kept at the bottom of the bus, the shock absorbers of the bus make even the worst roads a jolly ride and definitely you can pass your time watching movies on the bus. After every three to four hours, the bus stops for refreshments on the way which makes travelling by road easier.

Booking for Vishakhapatnam Chennai buses can be done easily by logging on to internet. There are many travel websites online, which book your ticket. You can pay through credit/ debit card or by internet banking option. These days there is another option of paying on delivery which has made booking of tickets so simple and the best part is that you need not pay even a penny extra for the comfort offered to you.

Similar to Vishakhapatnam Chennai stretch is the Hyderabad Chennai route. Hyderabad is the capital of Andhra Pradesh while Chennai is that of Tamil Nadu and are connected by NH 5 and NH 16. Bus booking from Hyderabad to Chennai is as simple as between Vishakhapatnam and Chennai. Online Bus Booking from Hyderabad to Chennai is definitely there.
