Article published on August 21st 2012 | Destinations

If you are looking for a fascinating and charming place to visit, try Venice, Italy. This romantic place is an old city with quaint architecture and home to St. Markâ€™s basilica. To know more about Venice, you can take a Venice tour. These tours will show you around the city and are usually hourly or for the entire day. A Pompeii tour is also fascinating. The best way to see Venice is through its various modes of unique transportation like the gondola, the most romantic ride. Venice is a massive city and it only gets better with over a hundred islands. San polo, San Marco and Santa Croce are a few of the islands that are beloved to the tourists.

Visiting Venice

When you arrive at Venice, the great Grand Canal is the first thing you will fall entirely in love with. If you are on your honeymoon or trip with you family, take a water taxi or a water bus and explore the city. A tour to Venice can be arranged before hand through an agent or an online tour guide. Make sure you insist on English speaking tour guides. The beautifully connected and kept city is a way to let loose and just enjoy the sunset or the sunrise. Make the best of your time there. Take a walking tour in the city as well as a walking tour of Rome. You can even do this on your own with the help of a street map and arrows that mark your way. You really enjoy walking tours Rome in the evening and it will be sure unforgettable for you. So donâ€™t miss that kind of lovely moment.

Places to see

If you are looking for a list of places to visit, do your research online. If you want details, contact a good online agent. They can recommend a list of places to visit depending on what you are partial towards, the performing arts, architecture or religion. A must see is the bell tower of St. Mark and the clock tower which you can only see if you enlist in a guided tour. There is lot of places to see, from ancient time which is realise you the history of Rome, its also so attractive point for all tourist.

Walking tours

Walking tours to the Rialto Bridge and market is common and you can pick up little trinkets to take home. A long sunny walk over the Giudecca canal is a necessity. Here you can see how the gondola is actually made and constructed. Rome and Venice are filled with beautiful churches like the Basilica Di San Marco or the San Giacomo di Rialto. Try to get in a Pompeii tours as well.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/trips-to-venice-tours-and-walking-tours-in-rome.htm - Article Side

Roman Guy - About Author:
The Roman Guy is leading a Rome Tours Company in Rome. Book cheapest a Venice tours to see memorable places in Rome. Visit on our site TheRomanGuy.com to know more about best packages. Contact us on + 39 339 112 5158 or info@theromanguy.com

Article Keywords:
walking tours rome, pompeii tours, venice tours

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!