Need to travel to destination arises from many events and happenings in oneâ€™s life. Our choice of destination depends upon the way we like things in our life and the urgency that gets created for one or the other reason. Bangkok trip is something almost everybody aspires to if the person is aware of the places of tourist importance around the globe, just out of curiosity or otherwise. Being a city of great importance, economical and political, tour to Bangkok is exciting in terms of history and architectural treasure of the place. Capital of Thailand it is always busting with activities. Make sure you become a part of them once you get here.

The Chao Phraya River of Bangkok is the inspiration for many tourist activities around it. While on Bangkok trip you could easily find cruises on this river that could take you around for a full view. You can also get a romantic escape from the rush of the city if you chose to have a candle light dinner with your companion on a night on Cruise with the reflections of the lights in the river that surrounds it. There are boats that could take you for a mild introduction to the river if you wish so. If you love natural water bodies, you could also get River Kwai Tour included in your tour to Bangkok. Natural beauty of different landscape views among mountains with elephant rides and tiger temples can make your holidays more special.

Shoppers can have a wonderful time on a Bangkok trip while letting their taste buds explore the potential of Thai cuisine side by side. Some popular shopping avenues are Chatuchak Market, MBK Shopping Center, Pantip Plalza, Cinatown and Indiana markets. Local markets have an old time charm especially the floating market of Damnoen Saduak where fresh produce are sold just like the old ways, in small boats that are managed marginally every time from tripping into the water. Shopping arcades would not give you the same experience but still is available if you want to get trendy on the go. Your tour to Bangkok will keep your mind occupied for quite some time.

Among all these actions one could not miss the milestones of a Bangkok trip. The Grand Palace, Wat Arun (Temple of the Dawn), Wat Pho, Wat Saket and Wat Traimit are most prominent among them. People would rather go to these places first and then think of any other activity to consider while on tour to Bangkok. What are your plans this vacation?
