Visit Egypt Really a Backpackerâ€™s Paradise

Hariom Arya

Article published on January 25th 2012 | Destinations

Are you stressed down with your hectic shedule of life and wish to invigorate your body and soul by taking your family and close to an exotic holidaying destination if yes then look no further than the gift of River Nile â€˜Egyptâ€™, undoubtedly one of the most sought after tourist destination fascinates tourists from every nook and corner of the world. Every year from every nook and corner of the world people visits this country in the hordes. Egypt the Arab Republic of Egypt is in north-eastern Africa with its capital located in its largest city, Cairo.

Home to worldâ€™s famous monuments and rich heritage, it is perhaps best known as the home of ancient civilization, with its temples, hieroglyphs, mummies, and visible above all-its pyramids. Besides if is there any other thing which draws the attention of many then its glorious past which is very old and glorious. The regularity and richness of the annual Nile River Flood, coupled with semi-isolation provided by deserts to the all regions, allowed for the development of one of the worldâ€™s great civilization.

Along with its glorious past and rich attractions it is equally famous for its warm-friendly people, exotic food, fascinating culture and excellent hotels and accommodations gives world class amenities to the visitors and make them feel special. Tourism in Egypt includes camel safari, thrilling desert safari, river Nile cruise, sightseeing voyage and many more.

Well Egypt is full of attractions, rich culture and brilliant sightseeing spots and if you wish to explore all of them while floating over worlds largest river then must visit to Nile River Cruise gives an unforgettable and everlasting holidaying experience. For more than 5000 years the river Nile Has been the lifeblood of Egypt, and today there remains no better way to explore the wealth of history, culture and architecture than along the same waterway that gave rise to its originally.

If you are visiting there with family then it would be the best thing to experience there. Most of the cruises run between Luxor and Aswan. From Luxor, cruisers can explore the Luxor temple-built by Amenhotep 3rd and Ramses 2nd- before going to Karnak temple along an avenue of ram-headed sphinxes, once the centre of worship. Apart from, excursions will take you to the valley of Kings, the tomb of Hatshepsut, the only female pharaoh, the Colossi of Memnon and the Valley of the Queens. The river Nile cruise takes tourists not only through some attractions but at the same time gives them opportunity to explore its glorious past and culture.

Well a journey of Egypt really would be incomplete unless you donâ€™t explore Egypt pyramids, world-wide popular for their brilliant architecture. Often referred as home to the Pyramids, there are about 110 pyramids, many in a state of great disrepair and almost unrecognisable. Among many the Great Pyramid of Giza is the oldest and largest of the three Pyramids.

This massive stone structure was build around 4500 years ago on a rocky desert plateau close to the Nile. Besides its pyramids there are many other places to see in Egypt named as Cairo, Luxor, Aswan, Alexandria, Red Sea, Sahara and many more.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/visit-egypt-really-a-backpacker-s-paradise.htm - Article Side

Hariom Arya - About Author:
Hariom Arya is an eminent analyst and writer in Travel & Tourism related topics. He has authored many books on tour guide for a Places to see in Egypt and a Egypt pyramids.Find more packages at a http://www.egypttourism.org.in.

Article Keywords:
Tourism in Egypt, Egypt Pyramids, Places to See in Egypt

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!