The most utilized protection in sending, storing or mailing valuble items are bubble mailers and bubble wraps. This item is made of light plastic material that may perfectly withstand bumps and scratches which normally occurs during transportation and shipping. This protective material cannot just protect important materials however it may also cover CDs, DVDs, folders with memorabilia and other items as well.

Bubble mailers are available in various designs, colors and shapes. There are mailing envelops and sheets plus they can also be cut according to the shape of what needs to be protected. This mailer is made of light plastic material so you won't incur additional charges for extra weight when mailing stuff. They are also waterproof sp there isn't a need for you to worry about flood or rain water while your item is being shipped. Most of these envelops are also tear proof so there is no danger of accidental spillage. But best of all, the adhesive strips are very strong and water proof also that it will take a cutter or some other sharp object to open it. Any attempt on tampering will be very obvious. But one thing it cannot protect is whenever a fragile object encased in the envelop hits the hard ground.

There are available box and bags and bubble mailers. The padded bags and boxes come in numerous  sizes and can accommodate bulky items and are a great choice to use when shipping gift items like discs. Once again, these bags come in lightweight materials so sending your items in them would not incur additional costs.

These mailers can be used as great gift wraps as also they are obtainable in decorative pieces. They are available in various designs and colors and also holiday themes. You could also send the gift as it is to the recipient so there is no need for you to get fancy wrappers. Simply place the unwrapped gift items in the mailers, make certain to remove the purchase price tags first, and send them as is. Bubble mailers in decorative designs promote a hassle-free plus much more enjoyable holidays. There are holiday designs, the everyday designs, and also the sparkly designs. These mailers are created of luxurious quality metallic and plastic materials that guarantees protection of your important cargo.
