Article published on December 1st 2011 | Education

Art History is the study of cultural contributions to the world.Breyer State University offers a Bachelor of Fine Art in Art History to promote the study of art in theory, philosophy and throughout history while having the flexibility to study your art history degree online.The primary focus of this online degree program is to understand critical thinking and creative independence. The online courses offer students friendly introduction to historical writings and provide backgrounds on aesthetics demonstrating art history arises from general philosophical questions regarding style, theory,the artist,and society. Expect to find in written sources, some reflection of your own judgment,for a variety of fields and issues in the role of society,critics,patrons, the artist,psychoanalysis and philosophy of art are approached. The online art history program will unravel to students wide ranges of various media that enthralled the world in both a dynamic and static sense image and styles. The degree program prepares students to aim in the appreciation and understanding gradual rediscoveries of the facts and influences of the past.All courses in the art history degree program are available online.Breyer States online courses are available to students anytime of the year.

Art is a part of a worldwide market that is constantly changing; so to keep up with the times, Breyer State University offers students the chance to earn a Bachelor degree in Fine art.The Bachelor of Fine Art degree at Breyer State University is blueprinted to equip students with the creative edge to succeed in one of the most profitable markets around: the creative world of art and expression.This is a specialized degree that aims at training students in either field of Art History or Interior Design and professionally cultivates ones creativity.

Art history focuses on the many styles and evolution of art and design through history while interior design prepares a student to create blueprints and be ready to start designing and decorating rooms.As a whole,the program encompasses the creative process of painting, drawing and sculpture as well as the theoretical and historical approach to art history.Graduates will have a deeper understanding of how art has developed through the time and be well versed in presentation and analytical skills.

As a creative professional with a bachelor of Fine art, you will be prepared to create,work and manage companies related to the creative world of art.Graduates can elect to go into a number of fields upon finishing the Bachelor of Fine Arts:

Archivists, curators and museum technicians

Commercial and industrial designers

Interior Designers

Architects

Art directors

No matter which way you decide to take your career with your Bachelor of Fine Arts degree, if you apply the concepts and theories learned at Breyer State, excelling your career is inevitable.

Being able to complete your Bachelor Degree in Fine Arts is an excellent way for active adults to stay involved while taking their studies with them. Students can access virtual classrooms,instant chat options with faculty members and online libraries from just about anyplace theres an internet connection.

Receiving a Bachelor of Fine Art from Breyer State is just one way a graduating student can advance ones career or craft.If you would like more information on this innovative curriculum Contact Us via email or call (310) 242-5964

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/education-articles/bachelor-of-fine-arts.htm - Article Side

Ericolparker - About Author:
Breyer State University exists to provide newer, innovative and affordable online higher education programs and courses that meet the needs of a wide and diverse market. We offer a online phd program, a online phd degree and online degree in art history. For more details please visit our web site.

Article Keywords:
grief counseling,online phd,online phd program,online phd degree,online phd degree program,art history degree program,online degree in art history,online art history degree

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!