Citation Techniques for Mark Twain Essay by Samcollier

Article published on December 8th 2011 | Education

Most of the time, students uses different authorâ€™s point of opinion in their Mark Twain essays but forget to document sources. Wonâ€™t it be embarrassing for you if your essay would be marked as plagiarized content and you would get very low grades in your essay exams? You shouldnâ€™t ignore the possibility of getting caught because today many universities and colleges use different plagiarism checkers to detect if the Mark Twain essay is original or not.

On the other hand, there are certain advantages of documenting sources in a essay on Mark Twain such as; the reader would find the information source easily if in case he wants to know more about the topic, leaves a good impression on the reader which will depict your academic integrity. Different colleges and universities have different standards with respect to the citation style, some prefer MLA bibliography format while some APA depending on the college guidelines.  If you want to know about citing sources in essay on Mark Twain, then I hope the following article will help you with this:

There are two types of citation, first in-text format citation, second is the parenthetical citation. We will discuss them one by one.

Format citation guideline for in-text bibliography:

When you have paraphrased a paragraph or a line or directly quoted from other source, you should mention the name of the author at the end or in the beginning of the sentence. For example; As per Mark Twain, the public system is based onâ€¦â€¦â€¦

Once you are done with this, you should provide a page range of simply the page number in the parenthesis at the end of the sentence, for example; As per Mark Twain, the public system is based onâ€¦â€¦â€¦(21- 34)

In case if you are taking ideas from internets then you need to make sure that you are incorporating title of the website instead of the page number or page range. For example; As per Mark Twain, the public system is based onâ€¦â€¦â€¦ (Works of Mark Twain)

Parenthetical citation format:

It is something different then in-text citation format, here you would be incorporating the name of the author at the end of the sentence from the source, for example; â€œThe civil justice system is derived from the consecutive legal precedents (Twain, Mark)

After you have mentioned the name of the author at the end of the sentence, you should also provide a page number or page after the name of the author, for example; the civil justice system is derived from the consecutive legal precedents (Twain, 23-24)

In case If you citing form internet then instead of mentioning the page number or range you should provide the title of the web page. For example; the civil justice system is derived from the consecutive legal precedents (Twain, Works of Mark Twain)

I hope the preceding comprehensive guideline for documenting sources in Mark Twain essay in MLA citation format will help you come up with a good piece of writing and get good grades in your exams.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/education-articles/citation-techniques-for-mark-twain-essay.htm - Article Side

Samcollier - About Author:
Sam Collier is a senior research writer and provide help for a Mark twain essays and a Essay on mark twain.Feel free to contact for any sort of help in this regard.

Article Keywords:
Mark twain essays, Mark twain essay, Essay on mark twain, MLA citation, Mark twain, MLA bibliography format

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!