Preference is something every individual has. We often think that children do not show any kid of preference, but they also have the same sense as the adults have. In fact, children show their preference when it comes to choosing any one from their parents. Attachments for parents start in childhood and lasts forever. A new born baby after their birth always need someone to take care of them, this person is parents who gradually form bond between them. Parents are the one who give a shape to childâ€™s personality and character. It is vital for the little one and parents to spend time together to build up a strong relationship among them. In most of the cases, we can see that the mother has more attachment with her kid because she gave birth to her child. Mother and infant have an automatic bond, but father establishes the relationship after the child come in the world. It is very important for the father to make himself available during the birth of the child because there is possibility that mother cannot hold the child right after its birth.

Studies have proved that strong attachment between father and the child is shown through physical contact, when they hold the child and face each other. Communication between mother and kid or father and kid also differ. When the mother-child interacts, the mother shows the affectionate and nurturing nature towards the child. When the father-infant interact, it deals more with affiliation and play. Childâ€™s personality is created through parent child bonds. They learn more about the world from the parents and secondly from school.

Itâ€™s true that a child is more attached to the mother. As mother spend more time with their children and mother shows more emotional support to their kids. As consequences, a child is closer to their mother than to the fathers. A father is very proud of his child and their child is also proud of their father.

Men and women bring different aspects of parenting and each of them makes different contributions in raising the kids which canâ€™t be imitated by the other. Women can be a good mother but they cannot play the role of the father.
