Article published on May 24th 2012 | Education

Education plays a vital role in ones life from the ancient times. Now days if any one belongs from low background or high status all wishes to achieve the best education for their kids. It means people knows it very well in India also that what is the actual value of education in our life. India is a developing country. Getting the primary level of education at free of cost is a right of every child in India. Many government schools are there in India who are offering good CBSE study pattern at very nominal fees.

Apart from that the private and public schools in India are taking full responsibilities on their shoulders to make each of their students a best citizen of tomorrows India. They are providing the best infrastructures in their schools which are fulfilling each essential requirement of the students to have a comfortable atmosphere in the school premises. The infrastructure includes best library facilities, good computers, Mathâ€™s and science labs; every student will get their individual system for study and practice in the school.

Academically the CBSE, ICSE, IBcurriculums are being followedby most of the schools in India. The CBSE schools are getting the highest admission rating every year because the curricula of theses schools are quite similar like the competitiveexams which are held across the India on the same day.

In co-curricular activities majority of public schools in Hyderabad are also performing their highest duties to make each child an all-rounder. It can be from various fieldsâ€™ sports activities, modern games cum recreational methods such as swimming, athletics, gymnastics and taekwondoetc. types of marshal arts have been introduced in many schools there. They are basically English medium co-educational schools where Telegu and Urdu are the subsidiaries subjects can be opt by the students if they wish to learn that especially.

The young talent of India in every exiting field from science & technology to sports and politics are flying their flags across the globe. Today Indian doctors, scientists and aeronautics are the people who have born and brought up in Indian land and schools or colleges but using their skills in foreign countries. This is also a pattern comes in the brain-drain systems by the foreign companies for Indian talents. But such type of Indian names and hard work if implemented in other countries then foreign companies are also investing well in many Indian sectors. In past few years due to the high performances of Indian in all sectors per person income has also been raised. All this miracle can only happens due to the hard work of Indian school systems.
