Pursuing a Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree has become a rave worldwide, especially in India. Anyone who has graduated in any field can pursue this degree which has added to its popularity. The first business school was set up in Pennsylvania, the Wharton School of Pennsylvania, which was set up in 1981. Over the years India too has managed to establish excellent and eminent business schools all around the country so much so that students even prefer to pursue their MBA degree from these top MBA Colleges in India rather than going abroad. Though the concept of top MBA Colleges in India is synonymous with only the IIMs (Indian Institute of Management), there are business schools in the country which are just as elite. Some of them are discussed about in the subsequent paragraphs.

Among the top MBA Colleges in India, IIM Ahmedabad is at the top; not only that, it is also a reputed b-school in Asia as well. To enroll oneself at this prestigious college, one has to sit for the CAT and score meritoriously. This institute offers 4 management courses â€“ Post Graduate Programme, Fellowship Programme in Management, Faculty Development Programme, and Management Development Programme.

The IIM Calcutta also belongs to the elite list of top MBA Colleges in India and students wishing to enroll to this institution have to sit for the CAT as well. The institute offers 3 full time courses â€“ Post Graduate Programme in Management, Fellowship Programme in Management and Post Graduate Diploma in Computer Aided Management. Along with these 3 courses, there is a part time programme offered â€“ Post Graduate Diploma in Business Management.

The Xavier Labour Research Institute (XLRI), Jamshedpur comes in the next in the list of the top MBA Colleges in India. The institute has its own separate entrance exam, the XAT and aspirants have to crack that exam, go through interviews before they can be allowed to enroll at the institute. The college offers 2 courses â€“ post graduate diploma in Business Administration and post graduate diploma in Personnel Management and Industrial Relations. Usually pass outs from XLRI get the best offers and placements not only in the country but abroad as well.

The Indian School of Business (ISB), Hyderabad also belongs to the list of the top MBA Colleges in India. The reason for its emerging popularity is that it offers the same programme during the course of a year. The institute offers one year post graduate programme in Management. Also, the institute takes the efforts to invite in other academicians from the relevant field from other world class business schools across the world â€“ Wharton, Duke, Stanford, Harvard, Kellogg to name a few. To apply to ISB, one has to appear for the GMAT.

The Faculty of Management Studies (FMS) under the Delhi University is also among the top MBA Colleges in India. Applicants have to sit for the CAT and then go through the interview process to get through FMS. Both full time and part time programmes are available at the campus.
