Nursery Admission - Hot Buzz in the City by Raj

Article published on April 23rd 2012 | Education

Education is the most important tool for contributing towards a developed economy. It is also considered the most powerful instrument as it makes the child ready for the rest of the phases of life. Primary education is the basic level in the education system of India. It is the basic foundation on which the development of the citizen and the country as a whole is built upon. In the recent past, India has shown a remarkable progress in terms of increasing primary education and expanding literacy to almost two third of the population. Many cities are opening new primary schools for offering admission to nursery children with a view of giving good basic education.

People living in metro cities wish to enroll their ward to good nursery schools. They want their child to get the best education along with the courage and confidence to face the world in the near future. Searching for a good nursery school in town often becomes a cumbersome task for the parents. These days getting your child enrolled in the nursery class has become much difficult and is the major concern for all the parents. Parents have big dreams about their children and want to admit their wards to the best primary school. They want him to excel in one field or the other and have many aspirations for their child. For this reason, there is a need to send him to a good school as primary education forms the basis for the performance in professional fields. It is the first stepping stone in the career of the child.

There is a wide range of nursery schools in Delhi. Nursery admissions 2012-13 in Delhi was the hot news of the city in the recent past. As the nursery admission 2012-13 in Delhi began, all the schools started giving their admission forms. Nursery admissions often create hassle among the parents and make them confused about which school to choose for their child. Nursery schools are majorly focused on the method of play and learn. The child is taught to sit with other students, make friends, and follow the directions of the teachers. The nursery schools emphasize mainly on the child development without making them stressed about the studies. It is a phase of introducing children to fundamental learning through the use of a medium that is engaging, less straining and more recreational in nature.

Nursery admissions for 2012-13 in Delhi created a lot of media buzz due to trouble in the admission process and availability of the admission forms. The seats are less and parents seeking admission for their child are more which made it a difficult task. Admission to nursery schools has been a hot topic in recent times for most of the parents who want to send their child to a reputed nursery school. Choosing a school is one of the most important decisions parents will make for their child. To have the best chance of getting the child into the primary school of your own choice, you must apply well in advance.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/education-articles/nursery-admission-hot-buzz-in-the-city.htm - Article Side

Raj - About Author:
Writer is school advisor of OnlineSchoolAdmissions.Com, who also provides free of cost counseling to parents on school admissions. A visit to the site lets parents know about the a pon vidyashram or a presentation convent school delhi of their choice. They can also search for a presidium as per their choice and fill up the school application forms online.

Article Keywords:
pon vidyashram, presentation convent school delhi, presidium

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!