Every CPA knows the significance of Continuing Professional Education (CPE) in order to keep their license active. In most cases, at least 40 hours annually must be attended by any CPA in Continuing Education. However, the requirements may vary across the various states of the USA. For example, if you wish to pursue CPE in California, the requirements will differ slightly from that in Alabama or elsewhere in the USA.

In CALIFORNIA CPE hours that every CPA must complete 80 CPE hours every two years, with a minimum of 20 hours mandatory each year. Every CPA pursuing continuing education in California will have to attend 40 hours in technical subjects in each reporting period, with a minimum of 12 hours mandatory each year.

How to Overcome the CPE Huddle Easily and Painlessly Every Year

CPAs are, undoubtedly, very busy people. However, since CPA CONTINUING EDUCATION is mandatory, CPAs usually want to overcome this hurdle each year as quickly and easily as possible. Options for completing CPE hours include attending regular courses or watching webinars. The problem with these options is that both are expensive, and quite often classes are scheduled during the middle of the work day. This may eventually eat into your valuable business hours. While webinars may seem like a good idea because you donâ€™t have to travel to them, they can be quite expensive. And, once again, they may take up a lot of your valuable time during the working days. Further, they require you to sit in front of your laptop or computer for hours to watch the webinar.

Whatâ€™s the Best Option for Online CPE

The most cost-effective and time effective option is to take any of the self-study courses from online providers including MasterCPE. For instance, you can take the program in California for completing CPE during more convenient periods, anywhere or any time. Companies that offer online self-study CPE courses have unique and different formats. Some providers require the CPA to review the material at their computer. MasterCPE allows the CPA to review the material on their computer, or the CPA can print out the PDF course material for reading wherever he feels comfortable and whenever he has time for study. MasterCPE also provides online grading and certification.

Online Self-Study Course Offered by MasterCPE is Convenient and Easy

Online self-study courses offered by MasterCPE are very convenient and easy. The courses are available immediately after the CPA registers for a new account. Thereâ€™s no waiting and no shipping costs involved. Whatâ€™s more, the online courses are easily accessible from anywhere. All you need is an Internet connection to start completing your CPE today.
