Schools in Dwarka by Jasina

Article published on February 1st 2012 | Education

Dwarka, which was only an upcoming township till some time ago, has come into its own now. There has been a prolific rise in the number of high rise apartments and wide, smooth roads. With this rise in the living standards has made people make a beeline for living in Dwarka. This robust growth in the socio economic pattern of Dwarka has led to a parallel rise in the schools in Dwarka area.

Now since the majority of the population of the Dwarka belongs to a well to do section of society, the schools that have sprouted in that area also have to reflect that trend. Schools in Dwarka have the standards comparable to the best in the country. There are many large and modern schools in Dwarka which are providing the best and most up to date education to its students. These schools also have robust and contemporary infrastructure and other facilities as swimming pool, skating rink or even horse riding. So Dwarka is on its way to claim its place as the hot spot for the destination for the best education available for the school going kid.

Now it is very important to choose from these good schools. Because although you might be very impressed by the structure of the school, which even might have an â€˜Internationalâ€™ tag attached to its name, you need to make sure of the people that make up the school, i.e. the teacher, support staff and the administration. Also learn more about the emphasis laid by the schools in encouraging the kid for the extracurricular activities. Because study is not the only teaching tool available for the kids. Dealing with situation on the ground is also a very important factor in the overall development of the child. Get to know the profile of the teachers who take care of departments like music, physical education, arts and crafts and other departments, depending on the school. So you need to have that information with yourself before deciding on that school for your kid. Also make sure you know about the mode of transport the school employs to send the students back home and what exactly are the safety standards. It is the most important factor to get your kid delivered back to you in the safest way possible.

There is no dearth of good schools in Dwarka but keep the above mentioned points in mind to make an informed decision. Talk to the school authorities directly to get a firsthand knowledge of the schoolâ€™s thinking on how it treats its kids. Also, if possible, try talking to the students of the school to know the details which the school authorities might not be very forthcoming on.

So now you know the important steps you must take to ensure that your kid/s gets to have the best of the school. Of course, the schools in Dwarka should be well worth the money that you are giving to it. Just clear all the doubts in mind before making any concrete decision.
