Suggested Photo Essay Layout by Samcollier

Article published on December 19th 2011 | Education

Photo essays are bit different from the rest of the essay types as it involves incorporating the photos that describes a story to the audience, it is often used to define the series of the incidents in a chronological order, this is why students find photo essay writing quite interesting to work on. An ideal photo essay would require interesting photos speaking volumes about the topics and pertinent informative text.

Writing best photo essays should be planned accordingly so that there is not flaw left in it,hence, you must follow the given photo essay layout that will help you come up with an organized version of the photo essays.

Suggested photo essay layout:

First step:

In the first step, you must find out a photo essays ideas or photo essay themes that would be discussed in the photo essay. Ask yourself what you want to convey to your audience. You can also brainstorm for developing different interesting themes, all you have to do is take a pen and paper; jot down what first comes to your mind then select the one which you like the most.

Second step:

It is advisable that the theme should be related to any event or occasion that can be encapsulated in photography, for this you can visit any event and take photos that define the scenario well. You can also take interviews to gather more information about the photo essays topics and mention it in the photo essay to make it more interesting and informative. It is better that you use the best picture in the introduction of the photo essay.

Third step:

Photo essay with examples could be the best possible way to attract the audience attention, pictures are always eye catching and interesting so you donâ€™t need to put a lot of efforts in writing photo essays, all you have to do is insert some photo essays examples as well along with the interviews you just took in the second step. Furthermore, you can also provide the story behind every picture taken to make it more informative of course.

Fourth step:

Fourth step is the final steps towards the completion of the photo essays, as you have used photos throughout the essay then you should also conclude it with the help of pictures. This can be even easier than before, you just have to provide a picture that looks a climax scene of the chorological scenario you are describing through the essays. There is no hard and fast rule that you should also use text in it but if you will provide the information then it will be more attention grabbing and interesting. For example; if you are writing your photo essay on someoneâ€™s wedding ceremony then you must end your essay by providing a family group photo in the end of the famous photo essays.

Hence, in just four steps you can start and finish the photo essays, it is advisable that you hire a professional photographer to take pictures for you so that there is no flaw left in the photo essay.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/education-articles/suggested-photo-essay-layout.htm - Article Side

Samcollier - About Author:
Sam Collier is a senior research writer and provide help for a photo essays and a best photo essays.Feel free to contact for any sort of help in this regard.

Article Keywords:
photo essays, best photo essays, famous photo essays, photo essays examples, photo essays ideas,photo essay layout

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!