In this article, I wanted to say that most of them people listen songs so sad and most of them listen fast or remix songs. Today the glamour is on its peak. Most of the people who when born they listen songs but fast. A person should cover all the areas of music.

There was one friend of mine we used to have fun all around in the University. There was one girl also in our University; we also used to have fun outside. Once I was going to the market and then suddenly there were some magazines in which there was an advertisement for the water park. I immediately called my friend toward me and then when he came, I asked with him to look that advertisement. He also said and appreciated that advertisement. After coming outside, we planned inside the car to go there and have fun.

On the next day, we decided to first gather there and then we decided to move sharp at 9:00 clock in the morning. All of arrangements were done, now we were just waiting for only one friend. She came late at least half an hour late. We planned to move earlier, so that in the evening we can come home back. Anyway, we started our journey and then we also played the songs on CD player. When we played the songs that songs were little bit fast, so one of our friends start claiming to play the slow songs. Now, in the end the situation came that all of us were too much feeling hectic because no one was satisfied with the songs. Some was saying to play slow songs and some was saying to play fast songs. Everybody has contributed something for this outing or you can say picnic, so this is also one of the best reason in claiming.

At last we decided to play songs and then we decided not to ruin this journey, as we have made this journey after a long time. So, suddenly we came to remember that we have to submit the assignment on tomorrowâ€™s morning. We first thanked to GOD that we came to remember about the assignment. We had the laptops with us. We soon asked to the company who provide original essays by just simply typing â€˜write my paperâ€™. Soon, after sometimes all of us agreed to write my essay through original essay writing.

Finally, we reached there. As we started to move into the swimming pool and then suddenly we saw that a positive reply came from original essay writings. We just got relax and then we moved in to the water, we enjoyed there and then we had lunch there. After some time we departed from there for home sweet home. We were so much tired and we were feeling so much sleepy that I was wishing for not to drive. Anyway finally, we reached at home safe with happy faces. The only fight which occurred is on the music topic and according to me that was really wasted fight.
