Heart-shape Bonuses: As you are playing a valentine day edition then you have to get a heart-shape box for achieving the bonus. A white heart is decorated with red ribbon and when you will obtain it then you get a number of hearts as bonus. You are free to design such heart-shape box for your valentine on 14 February; I am sure your Valentine will feel great pleasure after receiving her gift in this kind of box.

Birds and Pigs: When you start playing this edition of Angry Birds Seasons then undoubtedly you need should be ready for saying a warm welcome to all old birds such as Red, Blue, Yellow, Eggy White, Explode Black, Big Red and Green. You will notice that this edition brings an extra amount of flying pigs that come with angel wings, arrows and bows.

Usual Game-play: You will find no difference between Valentine Day edition and an original angry bird game; same game play, revenge and destruction. In case you are looking for an edition with new game play then I suggest you to check Angry Birds Rio as it has a new story and game play for your interest. However, this game comes with challenging puzzles. The first level is little bit easy but for moving ahead you need to do some mind exercises. The last level is the most difficult one as usual.

Lovely Design: First factor which differentiates it from other editions is its lovely and romantic theme. Pink color big trees look impressive in the background. The floating red hearts are also there for giving a nice touch to this landscape. In short, Angry Birds Seasons Valentine Day Edition is featured with amazing design, old game play, new bonus, old birds and some extra flying pigs. Now you can go and enjoy it.
