Article published on February 29th 2012 | Entertainment

With the popularization of Easter day easter cards have also gained popularity. With the celebration on this auspicious day people give Easter cards to each other as a mark of respect and good feeling. Easter day is celebrated like inviting each other to their house, going to churches etc and while visiting their relative or friends people share these cards, and more interestingly Easter egg which is a mark of new life, just how an egg means a baby chicken so easter egg symbolizes new life. Hence itâ€™s a mark of celebration for them. Easter egg is a mark of onset of springs hence a celebration of a new life. The main tradition is to use eggs and decorate them with painting. But now people make chocolate eggs or eggs made up of plastic and fill them with jelly or other confectionary .They hide it in the house so that childrenâ€™s to find it on the morning of eater. There the concept of easter bunny comes. An Easter bunny normally finds Easter eggs in the tradition. Eggs and rabbits are the symbol of fertility, hence an onset of a new life and a celebration.

Easter cards are very popular and they give it to each other on the day of Easter as a token of gift or wishes. Easter gifts are given to friends and well-wishers and celebrate Easter. The gifts are just the symbol. People decorate Easter eggs with pictures painted on them traditionally. Nowadays the Easter eggs are artificial eggs and mostly chocolate filled plastic cover. Easter cards are very popular too amongst Christian community. These cards are very famous and are highly sold and purchased in the Easter phase of the year. Resurrection of new life:Easter egg is normally the resurrection symbol. In conservative catholic churches, eggs are painted with the colour red which symbolizes blood of Jesus. The eggshell symbolises the tomb of Jesus, which means Jesusâ€™ resurrections after cracking the egg symbolising death. Easter eggs are enormously popular amongst European countries and so is the Egg dance. They lay eggs on the floor and dance in the midst of it without damaging it. In Mediterranean region eggs are boiled and painted and are used to decorate the whole house.Easter egg and gifts:

During the end of 19th century the tradition of easter gifts started as sending Easter card to each other, amongst friends and relatives. More than often the Easter cards are decorated with a big egg. During the world war-1st phase Easter bunny appeared as military bunnies in Easter cards, which used to be very creative. Easter gifts are normally soft Easter bunny or chocolate filled plastic eggs. These gifts are very popular amongst friends and relative. They give it to each other as a mark of love and affection. The festival is all about resurrection and new life. Easter is a great joy amongst Christian community. Love for Easter and its celebration are immensely popular amongst them.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/entertainment-articles/cook-your-best-candies-on-easter-2012.htm - Article Side

Siddharthg - About Author:
a easter 2012 is a perfect time to recreation with your family. If you want to enjoy the day specially, must find some ideas on a easter bunny, baskets, dinner and Easter eggs etc. You must find some beautiful a easter cards that you can present to you near and dear ones.

Article Keywords:
easter cards, easter egg, easter bunny, easter gifts, easter say, easter sunday

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!