Article published on June 15th 2012 | Entertainment

Entertainment has a long history and it is nothing new to this world. From the people in Stone Age to the people of till date, everyone prefers various entertainment activities. Initially the whole tribe would raise a bonfire and start singing and dancing in the evenings. In this age of technology, watching CableTV is a major form of entertainment. Variety of programs is telecasted on the television that attracts all age groups. Entertainment is an amusement for people and they vary according to the taste of an individual. Let us look at the few forms of entertainment that are popular.

Child Entertainment

Summer time is the most precious time of childhood. No homework and no schools make them happy. This is the time when they need a lot of entertainment. The entertainment activities that are chosen should have a balance on their mental and physical activities. Clowns, pantomimes and puppets are great ways to keep a child entertained. Even elderly people have a liking towards these shows. On TV children love watching cartoon shows. The animated characters are designed in a way that it attracts children. Few cartoon shows spread good habits and manners among children.

An interest can be created in the children on other activities like reading, dancing, singing and also getting involved in sports activities. Scavenger hunt and treasure hunt are outdoor activities that provide great entertainment to children. Scrap book making is a great idea. Many people treasure their childhood scrap book. Indulge children in a lot of drawing and painting that keep them busy. They kill the time and they learn something new each time they paint. Painting and drawing increases their sense of creativity.

Adult Entertainment

This form of entertainment includes concerts, movies, theatres, live sports, live TV shows and a handful of other activities. Parties appeal a person and they are great form of entertainment. Parties have all the fun that an adult looks for. Singing, dancing, feasting, dining, wining and dating are all components of a party. Men love to indulge in sports and sport activities. Stadiums that remain full during live sports are perfect examples for its popularity.

Most people go out for shopping when feel bored. Shopping is turning into a form of entertainment. The big and costly malls are changing the idea of shopping. Be it window shopping or shopping many people go out to entertain themselves. Music is loved by all people. Several tools like mobile, iPod, ipad, laptops are available in the markets through which music can be enjoyed at any time.

Elizabethan Entertainment

This form of entertainment prevailed in the Elizabethan era. This entertainment includes tournaments, games, sports, gambling, feasts and banquets accompanied by music and dancing. In feasts meals were prepared for many people. They included animal sports which involved bear and bull baiting and dog & cock fighting. Archery, wrestling, dice, cards, bowling and many more were all the famous sports during Elizabethan era.

Public Entertainment

This form of entertainment is growing in most parts of the world. Public entertainers perform in the roads expecting any amount of money that the public wish to give them. Public entertainment is found in major cities and places that are crowded with people. Places that are filled with tourists are preferred by the entertainers.

Entertainment and its types changes according to the culture. The most common form of entertainment that can be found from the tribes to the people in cities is singing and dancing. In cities people dance in pubs and in the forest they dance around a bonfire. Entertainment is important to keep us relaxed.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/entertainment-articles/entertainment-is-an-amusement-that-gains-our-attention.htm - Article Side

SharonThomas - About Author:
Sharon Thomas is a freelance writer and an active blogger. She has a great passion towards writing and likes to supply information on great services like a CableTV . In the above article she discusses about the various forms of entertainment.

Article Keywords:
CableTV, entertainment

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!