Animations have existed and prevailed since years now. At a point everybody has watched cartoons and animations as a source of entertainment but when we look at a greater aspect, animations have been a common technique for brand and product promotion. Animations have a high visual perspective and recollection of the data portrayed through these animations is remembered for a longer time than data dictated orally. Animated girl characters appeal to almost all the people. It is usually an animated girl character that is used by websites in order to create an appeal to the customers. It is a girl character that is capable of persuasion to the customers for promotion of products or any other business related elements.

Companies have been opting for animated cartoon girl characters on their websites mainly because girls have a persuasion power that can lead a customer to buy a particular product if promoted. Animated Cartoon Girl not only leaves an impact on the customers but also on children. For promotional strategy of a toy producing company, girl cartoon characters are preferred which serves as a customer gaining technique and children are better acquainted with the features of a particular toy that ultimately creates an urge to buy the product. Animations can be either 3D or 2D. the 3D perspective of a picture or animation gains more customers than expected because of their appeal.

Similarly, Cartoon Girl Characters are used in various training programs as well as the terms and the rules dictated and shown visually leaves a greater impact on the minds on the people. There are various companies which create different Cartoon Girl Characters and each virtual character is assigned to train different departments in companies. This a very successful way because the trainees are under no personal pressure or attack as they can ask their questions without any hindrance or much thought. This serves as a huge advantage because these characters ultimately serve as substitutes for real human people on whom the companies usually incur heavy payments. They create high resolution realistic pictorials which serve as a real human being.

Cartoon Girl Pictures have also been used for luring kids into shops, malls etc. The sellers use Cartoon Girl Pictures on billboards or advertisement balloons to advertise their product and the children are targeted this way. Cartoon Girl Pictures have been used on packages as well such as candies and bonus offer stickers so that the customers demand more. These girl pictures and animations are used in comic books as well. Their superhero qualities are highlighted upon which enables the reader to know more and more of the series.

Girl cartoon pictures and animations have served as an advantage to many companies and industries in attracting customers in the market. Making use of girl cartoon pictures and animations is an effective to make people retain what they have just watched. These characters have the capability of stimulating participation by thinking and discussion. These girl cartoon characters are usually used in colour, motion, line drawings, black and white etc to highlight key points or summarize a chapter or a topic of discussion in the end or in the beginning of a presentation. Therefore, girl cartoon animation serves as a technique which stimulates persuasion at the minimal cost.
