Planning Golf Holidays Turkey by James Blee

Article published on August 9th 2012 | Family

Golf holidays in Turkey have become increasingly popular with UK golfers in recent years as more people discover the wonderful golf courses that Turkey has to offer. Really Turkey is the perfect destination for a golf holiday as it has a wonderful year round climate and a very rich history so as well as golf there are lots of other great things to see and do during the trip. Turkey has some of the most wonderful beaches so people who are planning golf holidays to Turkey and are travelling with some non-golfers also can be assured that there will be plenty to keep everyone entertained. Golf holidays to the Algarve have always been popular with UK golfers but Golf Holidays Turkey are now becoming very desirable.

In recent years there have been many new golf courses developed in Turkey many of which are in Belek. The area of Belek now has 13 wonderful championship golf courses along with a number of 5 star hotel developments many of which border the courses and provide excellent facilities that many golfers expect like spas, superb restaurants and first class leisure facilities and these rival many of the best golf holidays in Algarve. Many of the golf courses are actually attached to a high class hotel and resort and many golfing holidays to Turkey come as part of package which includes travel, golf and accommodation for the duration of the trip. Some hotels will offer free buses to various golf courses so guests can enjoy many different golf courses during their trip.

One of the reasons why golf holidays Algarve are so popular is because of the wonderful year round climate and low rainfall averages. In the winter the Algarve attracts many golfers who enjoy playing in the pleasant temperatures and who want to avoid the summer crowds and scorching heat. Golf holidays to the Algarve were a very popular choice long before people even knew about golf holidays to Turkey. This is because the Algarve boasts some of the world best courses, wonderful hotel resorts, great beaches and many other wonderful things to see and do during a holiday there.
