It is easy to find that bridal gown is usually white or ivory while bridesmaid dresses come in a wide range of colors such as blue, purple, brown and so on. Generally speaking, the best choice usually lies in several points. First of all, does it match the color theme of wedding that has been decided? Second, you need to see if it is a wonderful connection to pair the bridesmaid gowns with the wedding dress. At last, check whether the color is suitable for the skin tone of wearer.

Blue

It is known to all that blue includes several tones like sky blue, sapphire blue, navy and so on. As a matter of fact, most shades of blue will work well for blondes and brunette while the purple blue shades are perfect for the maids of honor with dark skin.

Purple

Purple is a symbol of nobility, calm and steady. Purple bridesmaid dresses are sure to show off the unique charm and femininity so that they have great attraction for mature females. If you have got the redheads or dark skin, it is wise to opt for the stronger shades for purple.

Yellow

Referring to the dazzling yellow, it is a great challenge for many bridesmaids. When it is chosen as the theme of the wedding, keep in mind that yellow is quite picky to the complexion of the wearer compared with other tones.

Green

The stunning color gives other a fresh feeling and the green bridesmaid dress is really appealing to lots of females. Similarly, green also includes several shades. Generally speaking, the emerald maid of honor gown will looks great on redheads while the aquamarine tints are the ideal option for blondes and brunettes. Take the complexion into consideration and choose the most fitted one.

Black

When it comes to black, it is easy for us to connect it with the words like timeless and classical. Black will look great on the maids of honor for the evening weddings. In addition, the long black bridesmaid dress can be collected for other formal events while the short ones are also versatile. If the maid of honor features dark complexion, stay away from black, otherwise, it will weaken your beauty and make you appear gloomy.

It is a common sense that the bridesmaid gowns in dark colors will help to create a much slimmer look while the gowns in light tones will add to extra volume. What is more, go for the different styles according to the figure of the maids of honor. At the same time, it is a good idea to select the gowns made of soft flowing fabric instead of the taffeta and satin bridesmaid dresses unless the climate doesnâ€™t allow.
