Before filing any visa application â€“ certainly for Hong Kong - it is always a good idea to turn to the internet to see what kind of help is available from Hong Kong immigration service providers online. By researching the visa types, approvability criteria, processes, official forms, required supporting documentation and all of the applicable procedures you will come to understand whether you can readily proceed with your application, by yourself - or whether, in fact, you would be best advised to seek professional help.

Since 1993, the Hong Kong Visa Centre has been providing professional help to aspiring immigrants to the HKSAR. Moreover we offer an extensive array of online resources and assistance, all free of costs, for those seeking a Hong Kong Visa.

The Hong Kong immigration consultants at the Hong Kong Visa Centre are available to help out with any immigration related issue, offering complete guidance on the documentation and procedural details on each type of immigration applications, with extensive online support and assistance.

Our specialisation is business and employment related visas: Hong Kong investment visa, HK work permit or Hong Kong employment visa. Our online capability is uniquely helpful availing a smoother and ultimately successful visa application procedure. It is unlawful to join in or establish a business in the HKSAR without the correct visa permissions. Similarly, it is illegal to take up any form of employment with an employment visa or other authorising work permit.

As a layman, it is simply not possible to have up-to-date knowledge of the entire procedural and documentary requirements of an application for any of the Hong Kong visa types. Therefore, hiring an expert from a knowledgeable HK Visa service provider offers you the possibility of much better results. All the Hong Kong immigration lawyers at the HK Visa Centre utilise all their expertise in helping people to enter Hong Kong for work and business or, indeed, to immigrate successfully as a Quality Migrant, as our experts are skilled in addressing all issues related to Hong Kong visa and immigration rights and processes.

The mission of the Hong Kong Visa Centre is to help clients, people just like you, to secure permissions to remain in Hong Kong, be-it for work, business, investment, permanent residency or migration as a top notch talent. You can find a complete array of resources online for our Hong Kong Immigration Services at the Hong Kong Visa Centre with extensive, detailed D-I-Y application information accessed in the HK Visa Handbook.
