Article published on December 15th 2011 | Finance

Those that are marketing debt resolution services, after a period may find, that there are far too many problems related to the administration of their services. In such a case, the ideal action will be to outsource the debt resolution services to one of the bigger companies that deal with Debt settlement in USA. These companies offer high quality client service and once you have created your backend office you will find adequate time to spend on sales and marketing.

The debt settlement companies help financially overburdened consumers find a way out of their problems arising out of high debt balances. These debt settlement companies have their own attorneys that look after debt and/or tax settlement issues and may have a combined experience of more than a hundred years in the financial services industry.

The debt settlement back end office acts on behalf of debtors and extends help to them in clearing all their debts. For this purpose the company enters into direct negotiations with the creditors so that debt repayment is facilitated. The debt settlement company offers a total package with complete administrative solution. For offering this service, company does not charge any junk fees or monthly maintenance charge or even account setup fees. Only a flat fee is charged.

A monthly newsletter from the company will keep you informed of all progress of your account. In order to help you and the clients there is a round the clock hotline with a customer support staff on call to answer all the queries. Since all the accounts are segregated, you are always in control. The backend office also provides free counseling service for the clients.

At the outset you need to join an attorney supported debt settlement affiliate program. Once you sign up for the program you and your clients will be entitled to several services. One of the important services is that of the call shield. The call shield was invented by one of the attorneys. This service automatically transfers all collection calls to the backend office. You need not to say a word to a collector throughout the period of the program. The clients will receive several kinds of educational materials such as textbooks, software and newsletters. The purpose of these materials is to guide those clients that are keen to eliminate their debt burden.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/finance-articles/the-right-way-of-outsourcing-debt-settlement.htm - Article Side

John Taylor - About Author:
I am the webmaster of Settlement Corporation of America http://www.settlementcorporation.com - A a Debt Settlement Company working in affiliation with various debt settlement affiliate and debt settlement firms.

Article Keywords:
debt settlement, Debt settlement USA

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!