If you are looking for a star in the self service arena then the Jura X9 is the one for you. To begin with the Jura X9 coffee machine has such elegant looks that it automatically adds a touch of class to the surroundings. This technical marvel from the Swiss company Jura has such innovations to look out for on this model like the ability to make a cappuccino with milk and froth at the touch of a button without moving the cup.

The reception room of a high profile company, a beauty parlor, the lobby of a hotel â€“ just about any place where the daily requirement is less than 100 cups on the busiest day â€“ is a perfect place to set up the Jura X9. It will offer you a selection of over 20 different kinds of coffee. The clearly defined product keys and digital display dialog system make the Jura X9 coffee machine exceptionally user friendly.

You can get your coffee in your favorite mug too since the coffee dispenser is height-adjustable. Add to that maintenance is easy since it has an integrated rinsing, cleaning, and decalcifying programs. The Jura X9 has two separate heating systems for instant steam and coffee with separate hot water and steam nozzle. So next time you want a perfect cappuccino or a latte the Jura X9 coffee machine merely needs to have the instructions keyed in with your specific requirements and this super automatic machine serves it to you in a minute!

The slim, sleek, and modern-looking Jura X9 looks wonderful also on your kitchen table top or counter. If you often have friends dropping in without warning, what better way to entertain them with than barista quality specialty coffee? If you bring some creativity and a willingness to experiment with tastes and looks to the brewing of your specialty drinks then your family and friends will look for excuses to visit you often. For a sociable person that is an excellent reason to invest in the Jura X9 coffee machine.
