Article Side

Fascinating Indian Dishes

by Adrienne Barker

Article published on March 26th 2012 | Food

Favorite Indian Restaurant is located in the East Bay area of California in cities San Ramon and Hayward. You'll find North Indian cuisine that's delicious, authentic and nutritious. You can also book reservations on the website and you can purchase gift cards for loved ones who enjoy Indian cuisine from the website www.favoriteindia.com. Favorite Indian restaurant has been around for twelve years and the staff has a lot of years of experience in traditional Indian cuisine. You can easily take advantage of food delivery from their local restauraunt delivery. This restaurant also has a dinner and lunch buffet, and it offers catering services.

Samosas are fried pastries that are triangular-shaped and often filled with meat, potatoes, cheese or vegetables. These are popular in not only Indian cuisine but also Southeast Asian and Middle Eastern cuisine. Favorite Indian Restaurant has both vegetable and meat-filled samosas to enjoy and these samosas are made with bold and flavorful spices and herbs. Pakoras are deep-fried vegetables or meats that are made with chickpea batter, and at Favorite Indian Restaurant you'll find chicken pakoras, spinach pakoras, fish pakoras and chili pakoras.

If you're a vegetarian, Indian cuisine is a good option and Favorite Indian Restaurant has great vegetarian choices. One good dish on the menu is the dal curry, which is a curry with yellow lentils. The Bergan Bertha is an eggplant dish that's served with tomatoes in a cream sauce while the aloo gobi is made with potatoes and cauliflower and the chana masala is a dish of garbanzo beans with a spicy sauce.

Favorite Indian Restaurant also has some good chicken dishes such as chicken tikka masala, which includes shredded chicken in a spicy sauce with onions and bell peppers. The chicken vindaloo is a dish that includes chicken, potatoes and a hot sauce. The chicken sagwala is made with spicy creamed spinach while the chilli chicken is served with green chilies and vegetables.

You'll also find some good lamb dishes at this restaurant. The lamb korma is a lamb curry with yogurt sauce and the lamb sag is the lamb curry with spinach. The side dishes you can have with the lamb and other meat and seafood dishes include yogurt, rice and mango chutney. This restaurant also sells Indian beers to go with the meals.

The two beverages you can buy at Favorite Indian Restaurant are lassi and the mango milkshake. One dessert you can order here is kheer, which is a rice pudding served with nuts, and the gulab jaman is a dish of chese balls with sugar syrup.

Indian cuisine is simple, delicious and heartwarming. When you visit an Indian restaurant, you'll get friendly customer service from the staff and you'll dine in a comfortable atmosphere. This is what you can expect at Favorite Indian Restaurant. The items on this menu will transport you to India without needing a visa and passport. The meals are nutritious so if you're looking for a healthier way to eat out, Favorite Indian Restaurant is a good place to visit. Favorite Indian Restaurant offers affordable prices so you can feed your family while on a tight budget.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/food-articles/fascinating-indian-dishes.htm - Article Side

Adrienne Barker - About Author:

Looking for a food delivery? Try our a local restaurant delivery for all of your needs

Article Keywords:
food delivery,local restaurant delivery

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!