Melbourne is popularly considered one of the most romantic cities in Australia. The cosmopolitan Victorian capital offers diversity, excitement and fun around every corner, making it so easy to escape reality for an evening and just enjoy a romantic break with your loved one.

For most people, one of lifeâ€™s greatest pleasures is food. Sharing the experience of rich flavors with that special someone only heightens that pleasure further. Eating out simply makes people feel special. Many -a -girlsâ€™ dream is to get dressed up and be swept away to an exotic restaurant, where they can enjoy an intimate night with their partner over an irresistible meal.

Fortunately, there is no shortage of romantic restaurants in Melbourne, and they are as diverse as they are plentiful. Many also provide BYO options which conveniently help to make the evening more affordable. In fact, choosing the one you like best will be the hardest part! Ultimately the success of your evening will come down to the quality of the food and atmosphere.

The Ideal Cuisine

Middle Eastern dining is the new craze enticing more and more young couples on a night out. This creative cuisine takes elements from Mediterranean, Turkish and Moroccan food to produce rich and healthy dishes. The spicy aromas and tantalizing flavors at Arabesque will arouse your senses. Meze platters consisting of a variety of smaller dishes are perfect for sharing the wonderful food experience. And itâ€™s always fun to try new cultural experiences together.

The Perfect Drop

There is a reason why the old cliche is about â€œwining and diningâ€•. The finest tastes in the world only reach their full flavor and romantic potential when paired with the perfect drop. This perfectly fits in with the Mediterranean flavors already suggested â€“ here we have a cuisine built from the ground up with a focus on matching flavors and textures. Fire her up with ravishing red or sweep her off her feet with a whimsical white â€“ either way, it adds endless love and levity to the evening.

A Unique Dining Experience

From the moment you walk into the restaurant, the smells should awaken your taste buds and the sounds should heighten your excitement and expectations. The perfect setting is a warm atmosphere created by low lighting, intricate decorations and well laid out tables. The staff should be welcoming, accommodating and respectful of your privacy, ensuring you are not disturbed from your intimate bubble.

With the right food and the right atmosphere, all thatâ€™s left to do is sit back and enjoy each otherâ€™s company. For Middle Eastern Cuisine with a Twist, look no further than Arabesque in Melbourneâ€™s South Eastern suburbs. It is particularly popular with couples, with its intimate seating, beautiful decor and amazing live music performed weekly.
