The fireplace has traditionally been the heart of any room. Even in these modern times of central heating many people still enjoy the look and feel of a fireplace. With Flamerite Corello fires you can enjoy stunning designs that can create the perfect look in both traditional and modern homes.

Stunning Finishes

You can lots of choice when it comes to finish on electric fires. You can choose from a wide range of decorative fire surrounds, frames and mantel shelves. You will be able to assess the existing interior design in your home and find the right finish for your fireplace to match the colour scheme and style. Alternatively you may want to choose a more eye-catching finish that really stands out and makes a bold design statement.

â€¢ Flamerite Corello fires are available with a range of finishes including graphite, bronze and stone.

â€¢ These finishes complement a wide range of design schemes from traditional period styles through to modern minimalist chic.

â€¢ You can also choose from a pebble or coal effects. It is surprising how much difference the fuel bed can make to the overall appearance so it is great to have a choice.

Realistic Flames

There is something very special about the flicker and warmth of flames in the home. With Flamerite Corello you can enjoy realistic flames without all the hassle and mess of solid wood burning fires. Flamerite fires are known for their innovative and highly realistic flame effects. This creates a very warm and welcoming room.

The great thing about realistic flame effects from Flamerite Corello fires is that you can enjoy the look without the heat. This means you can turn the flame effects on independently from the heater section. You will be able to enjoy the cosy feel of the flames even when there is no need for any heat on.

Instant Heat

One of the main advantages of choosing Flamerite Corello fires is that they offer you instant heat for your rooms. You will be able to simply switch the fire on and start feeling the heat benefits straight away.

â€¢ Flamerite Corello offer accurate controls that can enable you to adjust the temperature at just the flick of a switch.

â€¢ This enables you to create the perfect environment for your rooms with enough heat to keep you warm and cosy without wasting any energy.

â€¢ Flamerite Corello also offers remote controls for easy adjustment. You will be able to turn the heat up and down and also dim the realistic flame brightness if you want to.

Flamerite Corello fires are widely available online and this is a fast and easy way to shop. These electric fires are also easy to install and provide a fast way to add style and warmth to your rooms.
