â€˜Donâ€™t play with your food!â€™ â€“ The saying goes old, forget what your mom use to say, now food play time for kids. Yes! The use of edible pens or food markers makes it possible. These food markers are available in the market today in variety of colors and these are completely safe to consume. If your child is not a food lover, try these innovative markers that will make the food more attractive and fun for your kid. Simply paint the cookies or draw a funny face on the boiled eggs to give a lunch surprise. Kids will not only love it but this will also help to improve their appetite and make the lunch or dinner time, the favorite time of the day.

Food markers are safe!

Food markers are the type of color or markers specifically made to use on food items. These markers are filled with a special edible ink that is pre-tested for safety and consumption. These non-toxic edible pens can be used to add decorative details to bread, veggies, pastry, cheese and candies.

What is an edible ink?

Edible ink is a sort of ink especially made for food markers and also used directly for adorning food items, more often baked products such as cakes, cookies, muffins, and the like. Edible ink as the name suggests is edible-or consumable, you can eat it. Mostly, it contains food coloring from natural and synthetic materials that are free from all kinds of toxic chemicals. Manufacturing of edible ink is monitored and regulated by the respective state authorities, so it is safe to ingest.

Food and fun!

From cookies to crackers, parents can decorate or color any kiddy food item to make food more enjoyable for kids. What would be better than gifting your child a food marker, so that he/she can draw and color his/her favorite characters on food items and enjoy his/her food. Food will always look delectable and kids will enjoy playing and having fun while eating.

Where to buy from?

When the matter is of your childâ€™s and familyâ€™s health, you cannot be careless. Food markers are o different types, makes and colors the only task is to select the right one. It is recommended to buy an edible pen from a reputed manufacturer only. A good manufacturer takes care of all safety standards and will provide you with the product that is kid friendly, edible and environment friendly.
