Article published on January 18th 2012 | Hardware

This desktop from Lenovo is absolutely stunning as it is a small and compact machine that looks attractive and is a great performer as well. All the parts the monitor, keyboard and the mouse are excellent and look very compact and neat on the desk. There is also much space on the desk when you place the Lenovo C100. Regarding the performance of the Lenovo desktop computer, one simply has to experience to get the feel of it. There is no problem with the heating factor either like that of a laptop. So this is plus point. The machine also comes with the Windows XP which is amazing if the user want to use it.

The Lenovo C100 comes with Intel Atom processor in conjunction with the Windows XP, which is enhanced with a big 18.5 inch screen that gives a neat and clean look and is one whole package. This is a perfect system for communication and long distance video calls. The integrated camera and microphone along with the DVD player are great features to make a final decision to buy the product. This system is a new designed and affordable desktop from Lenovo. The Lenovo C100 is an All-in-one desktop that comes with stunning and versatile features. The desktop computer is a fully featured machine for home and office use and also for those who want to be entertained after work.

The Lenovo desktop computer is also equipped with Windows 7 Lenovo enhanced experience certification that gives you optimized boot with richer multimedia capabilities, shutdown ties and fast recovery along with antivirus tools. Now you can relax and sleep peacefully with the antivirus tools as you do not have to worry about losing data and sudden shutdown of the desktop. The dimensions of the product are 14.6 x 18.5 x 4 inches. The weight of the system is 18.6 pounds.

This all in one PC comes with down to earth price, thus taking the top most position in the market as there is no competitor for this machine. Now only does it look good as compared to any other computer, the price too is surprisingly affordable for the common man. The Lenovo C100 comes at a friendly price of Rs. 20,000 approximately.
