Deadline Set for Care Home Fees by Aurturo Dan

Article published on August 3rd 2012 | Health

Have you paid exorbitant bills to nursing care centres and mulling over high fees? Then there is good news awaiting you! Thousands of families who feel that their elders in the nursing care facility have been wrongly charged now get a chance to get their claims for lifetime. The department of health is providing the last golden chance to get the claims settled and the deadline set for care home fees reimbursement is 30th September 2012. There are many people who have lost a great deal of money as well as family homes and fortunes in order to pay for the nursing care facilities and are now homeless. It is imperative for them to know of the deadline so that they can work upon it and claim what is rightfully theirs.

What you need to know?

Apart from sending us the form, there is a certain amount of smart homework that you too need to do on your own by myriad matters such as relating to people in similar cases or logging on the internet and posting your queries. You also need to know the fact that according to the command of health ministry, these claims can be made by the relatives of even those people who are no longer living. In other words, you can claim money or reimbursement for your elders who are no more living. The deadline set for care home fees reimbursement is 30th of September 2012 and hence all claims have to be registered before that. Please note the period of claims should be from 1st April 2004 to 31st March 2011.
