What will you benefit from if you take your pet to them?

Well trained vets and pet care staff

It takes a special heart to love animals and treat them nicely and that is why all the personnel working here are well-trained and animal lovers. A vet who has his/her own pet at home is even better. From the minute that you check in your lovely pet to the time you check him out, you will find excellent customer support and your lovely companion will be in the hands of well trained vets. Are you looking for a cat vet Raleigh? Then look no further than here because they do not come any better.

Our staffs will keep you updated on the progress of your pet if admitted and therefore you do not have to come to the hospital every time. we can treat a variety of pets which include dogs, hamsters, cats, mice, guinea pigs and rabbits to name but just a few of them.

A variety of services

We will offer you a number of pet related services. Suddenly, looking for dog vet Raleigh is not enough on its own because there is more than that here. At Creedmoor Road Hospital, we provide pet day care services. You can leave your pet with us in the morning when you go to work and collect him/her again in the evening. That way, you will not be afraid that vandals could kill your cat when you are at work.

We arrange appointments with you and your pet for minor surgeries, for example, when your pet has broken a limb. We also arrange appointments for dentistry and much more. You can also bring your pet for diagnosis when you think that there is something wrong. Usually, when you think that there is something wrong with your pet, there definitely is and therefore it is only fair that you take him to the sick pet Raleigh hospital. You will meet people who are just a tad more than doctors and nurses. They love animals because they too have their own. Your visit to the vet need not be a hallowing experience but it can well be enjoyable.

And the price? Well affordable, you can be assured. There are no fixed prices because different customers come with different needs.
