Switch to Disposable Electronic Cigarette by Brett Horth

Article published on January 25th 2012 | Health

The latest buzz for people who are trying to quit smoking is the disposable electronic cigarette. Disposable electronic cigarettes are a revolutionary product with many benefits. There is no fear of burning of fabric or other such accidents because fire is not involved while using disposable electronic cigarettes. Altogether, electronic cigarettes are worth the investment. These are the best cigarette alternatives for smokers.

These disposable electronic cigarettes stimulate a smoking experience quite similar to that of traditional cigarettes without causing any health risk. A disposable electronic cigarette does not contain tobacco nor does it require combustion. When a disposable electronic cigarette is smoked, a flow censor is activated which releases water vapour containing propylene glycol, nicotine and scent of various flavours. Disposable electronic cigarettes enable the smokers to ingest small quantity of nicotine, saving them from harmful carcinogens found in regular cigarettes. These electronic cigs doesnâ€™t contain tobacco and therefore, it can be smoked anywhere and even in airplanes, workplace and other places where smoking of traditional cigarettes is prohibited.

The Benefits of Disposable Electronic Cigarette includes:

â€¢ 100% legal to smoke anywhere â€¢ Satisfies nicotine cravings â€¢ Contains no tar or cancerous toxins such as arsenic or carbon dioxide â€¢ No passive smoking

â€¢ No whiffs or butts â€¢ Non flammable

â€¢ One disposable electronic cigarette â€¢ The healthier smoking alternative â€¢ Users experience almost identical sensation to smoking a normal cigarette, without the horrible taste or smells.

â€¢ Much cheaper to use compared with traditional cigarettes

There are manufacturers who will swamp the market with low quality imitations. The same is the case with the electronic cigarette. It is always advisable to buy an e cig kit from a reputed e cig company or ECITA member, as electronic cigarettes sold by them go through rigorous testing and compliance to ensure the customer receives the highest quality and safest product. You can also order an electronic cigarette online. Give yourself or a loved one the gift of an electronic cigarette to lead a healthier and safer life.
