Article published on January 4th 2012 | Health

In places or say cites like Delhi where life is very fast paced it is really important to stay healthy, fit and hygienic. In such cites there is lot of germs, virus and bacteria which keep on moving in air. What they all require is a human body which can support their life but can surely affect our healthy living. There is so much of pollution in cities like Delhi that it is really a tough job to remain hygienic.

But we can take measure from our side to remain hygienic. Measures to at least save guard our self from venereal disease. Itâ€™s a disease which is contracted and transmitted by sexual contact. Caused by microorganisms that survive on the skin and mucus membrane or those are transmitted via semen, virginal secretion, or blood during intercourse. The reason behind is that our genital area is warm and moist that helps proliferation of bacteria, viruses and yeast. This all helps in transmission of great many diseases.

They include AIDS, Chlamydia, genital warts, gonorrhea, syphilis, yeast infections, and some forms of hepatitis. The traditional methods and tips by grandma and family doctors may not be helpful in treating venereal disease. Only a venereologist can help patients with such genital related problems. There are numbers of venereologist in Delhi region itself. There are venereologists in pitampura, venereologist in hauz khas and venereologists in uttam nagar who treat people all over Delhi who have genital disease.
