

Article published on May 15th 2012 | Home

If we talk about popular whale sharks in South Africa then we should mention ragged tooth whale shark. This type of whale shark is commonly found in beautiful place of South Africa i-e Plettenberg Bay. Moreover, for enjoying whale shark diving in South Africa person should visit different places of South Africa such as Aliwal shoal, northern KwaZulu Natal and many more.

In these places of South Africa, person will find large and biggest species of whale sharks. If person wants to experience whale shark diving in South Africa, then person should visit South Africa during the months of September and May. On the other hand, if person wants to swim with tiger whale sharks then person can found them in South Africa during the months of January to May. Moreover, if person wants to make a plan for visiting South Africa then person should enjoy this thrilling and adventurous experience.

In order to enjoy whale shark diving, it is very important that person should know the fact sheet of whale sharks. The biggest type of whale shark in the whole world is Rhincodon Typus whale shark. The smallest size of whale shark is about 15 inches or 38 cm long. Moreover, for enjoying whale shark diving person should know that the whale shark is almost 70 million years old. Moreover, whale shark is also known as plankton feeder.

The best places where diver will find wide and broad range of whale shark is Western Australia, Cancun, South Africa and United States of America. According to recent and latest survey that the best place for whale shark diving is Western Australia. Apart from diving, many people would love to keep whale sharks in large aquariums for the purpose of displaying. Furthermore, whale shark is also known or famous as the peaceful fish and this type of fish is not attacking or harmful for humans. People can easily swim with whale sharks if people adopt proper care and implement important preventive measures. For enjoying swimming with whale sharks, it is very essential that person should get training from professional and renowned diver who is experienced for diving with every type of whale shark.

In the final conclusion, whale shark diving is considered to be the most thrilling and exciting activity in the whole world especially for those people who wants to enjoy adventurous activities. But for enjoying whale shark diving, it is very important that person or diver should visit the best place or destination and for this reason we should not forget to mention the name of South Africa. Finally, we can say that swimming with whale shark is the best and thrilling experience and every adventurous person should try at least once in his/her lifetime.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/home-articles/how-person-enjoy-whale-shark-diving-in-south-africa.htm> - Article Side

Dany - About Author:

To know more about us please click here: a Whale shark tour

Article Keywords:

Whale shark tour, Whale shark snorkeling, Whale shark diving, Swim with Whalesharks, Whale shark holbox, Isla mujeres tours

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!