Britain is famous for being a nation of animal lovers; almost half of us own and cherish a pet. Statistics found that we share our homes with 7.3 million dogs and 7.2 million cats. As well as providing a constant source of friendship, enjoyment and fun it is no surprise that our pets are often referred to as "one of the family". Comfy Cats Cattery understand how much your cat means to you and so have developed a premium cat boarding London service which ensures that your special pet is looked after in the best possible way when you are away. We realise that choosing a cattery in London can be a difficult decision and we also know that leaving your furry friend can be a worry so we have developed the best possible temporary home (in our opinion!) to alleviate your worries and ensure that your cat receives the very best attention and is safe, secure and comfortable in our purpose built friendly facility.

Comfy Cats Cattery is based in Middlesex close to Heathrow Airport, our family run and owned cattery in London has been providing temporary homes for cats for over 15 years. With our wealth of experience, professionalism and a genuine love of felines we have gained a well deserved reputation as amongst the very best for Cat Boarding London. We pride ourselves on being a little bit different; our service is unique in that we aim to provide all the little extras that your cat receives at home, including fresh chicken and tinned tuna once a week.

The accommodation alone puts it amongst the best cattery in London with a spacious and secure pen, sun shelf, scratch post and sneeze barriers to combat any cross contamination and rest assured that the areas are thoroughly sterilised after each visitor.
