Article Side

How to trick Adsense Approval by Ravi K.

Article published on December 25th 2011 | Home Business

Before you know â€˜how to tick adsenseâ€™ let introduced you what is it? AdSense is a best, free way for publishers of all sizes to earn money by displaying targeted Google ads on their websites. AdSense also lets you provide Google search to your site users, while earning money by displaying Google ads on the search results pages.

As you can see, Google AdSense is a wonderful tool, and allows website owners and bloggers alike to serve up advertisements on their pages that are effective and unobtrusive. But can you really make money off these ads? Well, the answer is yes, but how much depends on what your site is about (site content), how well it is set out or site design, and how many visitors you get.

There have been many incidences where the Google Adsense Account Activation requests of many publishers were rejected by Google. And as Google does not state the exact reason why the Request wasnâ€™t approved, it keeps the publisher wondering what he did wrong.

It must be noted that Google is getting very strict these days regarding the Adsense Account approval as people are trying to Fool the Advertisers and Make easy money. People from the Asian Sub-Continent have been increasingly caught in Adsense Fraud Activities so the rules are stricter for them. Let us consider a few reasons why adsense account request of Publishers is not being approved.

One should always read the guidelines and terms of service of any site you are joining and signing up. This is also another topic that the mourning is often pretty loud when a user tried to get an account for a blog or website approved but Google does not accept it. As the account is then immediately automatically blocked, you canâ€™t try it again and sign up with the same email address, name and postal address. To know â€˜how to tick adsense approvalâ€™ you must know what quality required for approve adsense that is below.

Important for Get Adsense Approved

â€¢ Remember, AdSense team wants your visitors to genuinely click on their Advertiserâ€™s ads. So, make sure that your site is easily navigable, make sure that before you submit your AdSense Application â€¢ Never fake your name, address or phone number. The verification is done by a group of people, not by bots.

â€¢ Your site can only have content that agree to Google Adsenseâ€™s policy. Hacking tutorials or tricks are a strict a â€œNo way Lookâ€•. In a word, everything that you post should be LEGAL. Also, just having few original articles wonâ€™t do the trick.

â€¢ For your website to be qualified for Adsense, you need a good aged website. Your blog must be minimum 6 months old before you can apply for Adsense. This is a strict condition for applying for Adsense.

â€¢ Trying to use black SEO tricks such as stuffing webpages with keywords, or including hidden text or links to improve search engine ranking is not allowed.

â€¢ Applications with URLs of folders such as www.example.com/blog are not approved, they only approve top level domain such as www.example.com

â€¢ However, you can apply for sub-domains such as http://blog.example.com

â€¢ Your domain name records should reflect the details provided in your application. Donâ€™t try to get an account by providing wrong website or other details.

After implementing all above instructions definitely you will get approved for adsense by below link. But still you are unsatisfied for it than you can refer the blog How To Trick Adsense. Here is some tips for how to approve adsense without your own domain.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/home-business-articles/how-to-trick-adsense-approval.htm - Article Side

Ravi K. - About Author:
For more effective tricks for approve adsense without any website or easy tips, you can refer a Approve Adsense or my blog a How To Approve Adsense.

Article Keywords:
how to trick adsense,approve adsense,how to approve adsense,trick adsense

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!