Gone are the days when bathroom were considered space of utility but now they are an important part of home which portrays the living style of people therefore it should be made in such a fashion which makes the bathroom neat and clean but also beautiful. As bathroom being the place to relax and attain mental health due consideration should be given on bathroom for this very reason we use bathroom cabinets.

A bathroom vanity cabinet provides adequate space for toiletries, makeup, brushes, and other grooming products in an organized way giving the room a well furnished look. The style of bathroom cabinets depend on your bathroom whether its modern or traditional, you want to choose something that fits into your bathroom and doesn't look out of place.

Modern bathrooms have vanity cabinets which make the bathroom look neat and clean as all the stuff can be kept inside it. A bathroom vanity consists of sink and several storage compartments. It hides the plumbing and offers counter space for toiletries and bathroom products.

Variety of vanity

Various vanities are available and you can choose as per your taste and preference. You can purchase according to your desire and income. Vanity cabinets can be of classic, contemporary and combination of both traditional and contemporary design. The stylish vanity for the bathroom may be made of wood or laminated material.

• Laminate

• The material used is Thermo foil, Wood Veneer, Polyester.

• Panel style is of Flat slab, V-Groove.

• Door style may be Square panel, Arched Panel, Cathedral Arch.

• Wood

• Wood species used are Cherry, Pine, and Oak.

• Panel style same as laminate.

• Door style same as laminate.

Style of Vanity

Various style of vanity includes single sink, double sink, corner, curved front, bow front and wall hung. The most durable, stylish and adequate space should be selected for example double vanity can be used by the customer who have ample of space in their bathroom. Thus a smaller vanity is perfect for many and a larger vanity suitable for larger bathroom shared by multiple people.

The bathroom which is used less or is used at the time of arrival of guests, less focus should be given on storage space and more on aesthetic appeal.

The size, height and lighting play a very important part in the bathroom vanity cabinet. The size of bathroom vanity affect the amount of counter and storage space needed for bathroom. Always a large vanity isn't the best option. The height should be considered utmost as bathroom used by younger children should have vanity height of 34 inches and requires plenty of space to store their toy tubs and color scheme that fits the bathroom. The lighting inside the vanity ensures that you will be able to see all the contents as well as make interior more appealing. The right bathroom cabinets provide years of satisfaction and enjoyment.
