In the frenzy of the every day life it is sometimes difficult to remember to pay enough attention to all the family members, not to talk about friends. Kids usually always get at least the basic attention but unfortunately husband or wife are often forgotten about, so to speak. I find it utterly important to maintain the romantic feel of newly weds so I try to come up with ways to spice up the relationship as well as find the time to do something fun as a family, too.

When it comes to the whole family spending time together, we usually go on a hike or picnic, or then to an amusement park. Our kids are quite travellers and they enjoy also the cultural side of travelling. With my husband, we have come up with a great way of spending those weekends when our kids are at grandparentsâ€™ place. It all began with the acquisition of a fireplace which we had ordered from UunisepÃ¤t, a Finnish fireplace company.

About half a year ago we randomly popped into a UunisepÃ¤t store, just to have a look around. Once we left, we had ordered a fireplace that was to be installed in two weeks. Although, the decision was made on the spot, we have not regretted it since.

After the professionals from UunisepÃ¤t had installed the fireplace, my husband and I have had the chance to spend some really romantic evenings by the fireplace. We love to buy some good wine, cook a nice meal and just hang out by the fireplace. It brings a lot to the relationship and I have to say that Iâ€™m truly happy that we have been able to revive the love and give it a romantic boost. When the parents are happy and relaxed, the kids feel it and are happier, too.

In addition to the positive effects of the fireplace on our marriage, the kids, and their friends, have come to love the fireplace. We have developed a new tradition of spending at least few nights a month gathering in our living room by the fireplace and playing some fun games, like charades. So, it is truly amazing how a spontaneous purchase can change one familyâ€™s life.
