Communicating effectively, politely, and promptly with consumers is the cornerstone of good customer care. Ever since its inception in the year 1982, Eureka Forbes has constantly striven to offer products that improve the quality of life of its customers. Eureka Forbes knows that it is not only products that matter. Customer care holds equal essence. It runs a single helpline number that is accessible round the clock. It is 3988 3333. Dialing this Eureka Forbes customer care number, you can enquire about products, new releases, features of the desired product, special offers, discounts, and more. And then if you want to place requests for after sales service support, you will have to dial the same Eureka Forbes customer care number.

â€˜Customer careâ€™, as the phrase suggests, is in essence the means to satisfying customers. It encompasses the services provided to the customer during or after the purchase of a particular product. Right from attending to order requests, product delivery to repairing, servicing, insurance claim, etc. the phrase takes in all. In short it is all about fulfilling customer requirements and maintaining a relationship for years together. Eureka Forbes in India has been in the good books of millions of customers for its products and excellent customer care services. Eureka Forbes customer care executives never leave any scope for grievance. Dialing the Eureka Forbes customer care number, you can constantly expect to receive prompt and courteous response.

You cannot imagine the market without customers. Eureka Forbes is well aware about the fact. Around 30 million plus consumers constitute the Eureka Forbes consumers count. Eureka Forbes in India runs one of the largest networks catering to more than 145 cities and 398 towns. The company has over 1500 service centres across India. 5800 plus trained technicians are on their toes to cater to service requests. Eureka Forbes in India makes available part of its products via direct sales and part at all leading consumer durable, home appliance and modern organized retail outlets. In the segment of water purifiers, it is the AquaGuard that is available via direct sales. This drive witnessed nascence in the year 1982. It all started with Eureka Forbes India ambassadors moving from door to door to spread awareness about drinking pure water and living in a clean environment. And since then AquaGuard products are made available at the consumersâ€™ doorsteps. You can order your AquaGuard system dialing the Eureka Forbes customer care number.

When we speak about the AquaGuard Eureka Forbes RO system, you will come across at least three variants. Newer models are introduced in sync with the latest trends and technologies and are added to the existing portfolio. One Eureka Forbes RO system that has created much buzz in towns and cities is the AquaGuard Total Enhance. Users gain a competitive advantage saving 30 percent of water which otherwise gets wasted. Total Enhance Eureka Forbes RO is the only purifier of its kind in India. The other AquaGuard Eureka Forbes RO purifiers are Total Reviva and Total Atom.
