If there is one vacuum cleaner in the world that can be identified through its look it is the Henry vacuum cleaner. The smiling face on every Henry vacuum is as discernible as the sun that rises in the east every morning. If you are looking at a high performance vacuum cleaner that can always keep you happy then the Henry vacuum cleaner is what you are looking at.

The smiling face on the Henry vacuum cleaner is one of the primary reasons why it has always been such a high selling product. Every user of the Henry vacuum has nice things to say about it. Manufactured by Numatic International Ltd, the Henry vacuum always brings in joy to its customers with its great performance and efficiency.

The great performance of the Henry vacuum cleaner is attributed to the TwinFlo' two stage motor that is used in it. There are two modes of performance of the Henry vacuum. For standard cleaning you can use the standard mode. And when you are looking for some serious cleaning all you need to do is press the red button on the vacuum to turn the â€•hiâ€• mode on. No matter how stubborn the dirt is, your Henry vacuum cleaner is sure going to suck it in.

Does the sound of your vacuum cleaner bother you to insanity? Here also you have great advantage when you use the Henry vacuum. Comparing the noise level on the Henry vacuum cleaner with standard vacuum cleaners shows that the former is at least 20% quieter. And when you use your Henry vacuum you also get to save a lot of energy. The Autosave technology in your Henry vacuum allows you save up to 50% less energy than standard vacuums. So, even when you use your Henry through and through you donâ€™t get killed by the energy bill. And of course, you make your due contribution to the society as well. The Tritex filter system and HEPAFlo dust bags of your Henry vacuum cleaner also ensure that the air is always clean and dirt free.

The Henry vacuum also takes pride in the fact that it has an extensively distributed customer service system. So even when you need repair or replacement of parts for your Henry vacuum cleaner you donâ€™t need to run from pillar to post. One call to the service team and someone will be there in no time. And of course, the fact that spare parts and accessories of your Henry vacuum are available online is also a boon. You can easily buy parts and accessories for your Henry vacuum cleaner from some of the bestselling online vacuum stores.

Your Henry vacuum cleaner will always bring in a smile to your face. Be it its look, be it its performance or be it its superior after sales service, your Henry vacuum always makes you a winner.
